

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Jose Colomer, Sara de Julián, Diego Griñán and Merxe Martínez GenText Research Group

Facultat de Filologia, Traducció i Comunicació, Universitat de València

GOALS

Linguistic Contents

Reported Speech
Vs.
Direct Speech

Communication Tasks

Close – reading on a domestic Violence article:
“From Dangerous Home
to Safe House”
(New York Times)

Learning Strategies

Cooperation

STRUCTURE

Preparation:

Outline goals for the class

Grammar presentation and Practice:

Reported Speech explanation Discuss pronunciation of reporting verbs

Strategy presentation and Practice:

Verbal tenses changes
for Reported Speech

Communication Practice, Part 1:

In groups, make statements
using Reported Speech

Communication Practice, Part 2:

Transform sentences from the provided article into Reported Speech or Direct Speech

Evaluation:

Ask the students how they changed the structures and provide examples of their own

MATERIALS

Homework exercise on Past Tenses

Photocopy of the verbal tenses changes

Newspaper article

Expansion (homework):

Writing on domestic violence
using Reported Speech

