The Universitat de València, through the Chair of Philosophy and Citizenship “Josep Lluís Blasco Estellés”, announces the “Càtedra Blasco” Essay Prize with the following rules:

R U L E S

- 1. The prize will be summoned every two years. This prize is open to any essay that fits in with one of the subject matters of the aforementioned chair: philosophy, politics, sociology, etc. The length of the essay will be no less than 150 pages (DIN A4) and no more than 250 pages (DIN A4). The essays will be printed in a single page and of double-spaced typing.
- 2. The original texts must be unpublished and must be written in Catalan, Spanish or English language. Five copies of the essay must be submitted to:

CÀTEDRA JOSEP LLUÍS BLASCO
Facultat de Filosofia i Ciències de l'Educació
Avda. Blasco Ibáñez, 30
46010 València
- 3. The deadline for submission will be on 15th October 2009, at 2.00 pm.
- 4. The original texts will have a pseudonym, and must be submitted together with a closed letter enclosing the author's full name and address.
- 5. The members of the jury will be appointed by the Universitat de València and will include the Vice-Chancellor of the Universitat de València, or a person appointed by him/her, and four prestigious people in the scholar and/or cultural sphere.
- 6. The prize could be not awarded if the members of the jury consider that none of the essays submitted has the required quality.
- 7. The prize is worth 10.000€ for just one essay. This amount of money corresponds to the royalties earned for its first edition (Catalan, Spanish, and/or English). The prize includes the publication of the essay in Catalan language by Publicacions de la Universitat de València.
- 8. Publicacions de la Universitat de València will have the first option to acquire the rights to publish the essays submitted but not awarded. This option will expire after six months of being given the verdict by the jury.
- 9. The decision of the jury will be announced on 21st December 2009, and there will be no right of appeal against the verdict. In the same way, the jury is entitled to solve all the questions of their competence that are not explicitly specified in these rules.
- 10. The authors of the non-awarded essays can reclaim their original texts in the next three months after the awarding. The essays will be destroyed after this time.
- 11. The submission of any essay to this prize involves the author's consent to these rules.
