

2-week BIP in Olomouc

14 – 25 July 2025

virtual follow-up: late Aug or early Sep

The Use of Force in International Law

The programme will examine key issues such as aggression in international law, the UN Charter system of collective security, collective self-defence, and the role of the UN Security Council in maintaining international peace.

Through lectures, discussions, and case studies, participants will engage critically with the legal frameworks governing the use of force in international law.

FULL OF:

- intensive and exciting programme
- unique atmosphere
- special guests and lecturers
- field trip to Vienna (UN HQ)
- social activities

ECTS credits:

up to 5 ECTS for active participation

A unique opportunity for students to engage in rigorous debate, professional networking, and a deeper comprehension of the evolving challenges in the regulation of force under international law.

MORE INFO:

martin.verner@upol.cz

radana.kuncova@upol.cz

<https://www.upol.cz/short-programmes/>

Palacký University
Olomouc

CIHOL

Centre for International Humanitarian and Operational Law