Curriculum vitae

Economist and lawyer.

I started my professional career at Arthur Andersen and later I worked in Garrigues, one of the leading Spanish Law firms.

In the year 2000, I joined IVI where I have led and participated in its growth since then, achieving the position of General Manager. IVI has become, not only the reproductive medicine group with one of the greatest presence worldwide, but also one of the leaders in quality care and clinical results in the speciality -as well as a benchmark in the scientific field.

I have participated and promoted the creation of different international projects for IVI, in particular, the creation of a joint venture in India, IVI Middle East and IVI UK. I was actively involved in the merger with the American reproductive medicine group RMANJ, being IVIRMA the result of said integration.

I left IVIRMA in 2021. Since then, I have worked in several projects related with entrepreneurship, strategy and healthcare. I am also an associate professor at EDEM.
