

"El Hilo Rojo. Memorias de dos familias obreras" ("The Red Thread. Memories of two working families")

Date: 28 de february de 2013 19:30 to 21:00. Thursday.

Place: Great Hall. La Nau (Universidad, 2).

Topic: The workers' movement against the Franco regime in Valencia.
Roundtable on the book "El Hilo Rojo. Memorias de dos familias obreras" ("The Red Thread. Memories of two working families"), by Mario Amorós.

With the intervention of: Pedro Ruiz Torres, Historian. University of Valencia. Gloria Marcos, President of the Institute of Political Studies. Antonio Montalbán, first Secretary General of the CCOO-PV. Antonio Moya, CCOO-PV. Mario Amorós, Historian. Author of the book.

Presented by Alfons Cervera, writer.

Free entry, limited seat capacity.

The read thread is what leads one generation to another, what make war to defend the Republic, suffered repression under General Franco and even so, assumed the risks of rebuild the PCE under the dictatorship, to the young people that lived the scarcities of postwar and put in place, with many other men and women of the working class, the movement of "Comisiones Obreras" (Worker's Comissions)..

Organized by: Debate Forum.

Contact: cultura@uv.es.

More information: <http://www.uv.es/cultura/v/docs/actdebats>

Back