

Poesía y soledad (Poetry and solitude)

Date: 21 de february de 2013 19:30 to 21:00. Thursday.

Place: Aula Magna (Great Hall). La Nau (Universidad, 2).

Topic: Poesía y soledad (Poetry and solitude).
A dialogue with Olvido García Valdés, author of "Lo solo del animal" (Ed. Tusquets).
With the intervention of: Antonio Méndez Rubio, poet. University of Valencia. Olvido García Valdés, poet. Author of the book. Premio Nacional de Poesía 2007 (Spanish Poetry Award).
Free admission, limited capacity.
Olvido García Valdés is already "one of the most important writers of Spanish contemporary poetry" (Eduardo Milán). The poems in "The animal's only" show once again a unique and recognisable voice, which however refuses to be settled, facing instead new risks every time, always with remarkable results. "Lo solo del animal" proposes a meditation on the animal element in loneliness, a non-verbal place, of existence, which comprises all beings, but which opens here to knowledge and sharpens in consciousness.

Organized by: Debate Forum.

Contact: cultura@uv.es.

More information: <http://www.uv.es/cultura/v/docs/actdebats>

Back