Job title: Cultural Skills Internship

Job description

This role sits in our Cultural Skills team within our wider Arts business unit. Cultural Skills functions as a cross-organizational team working in collaboration with colleagues across all three Strategic Business Units (SBUs) of the British Council: Arts, Education & Society and English & Exams. In doing so, we aim to complement and fill gaps in our current skills provision, align areas of work and regional priorities and to cultivate joined up ways of working moving forward. The London and Cardiff based team draws on UK expertise in the area of cultural skills to identify opportunities to co-invest in strategic partnerships across the full spectrum of the cultural sector. This is an exciting time for the Cultural Skills team who are at a crucial stage in the planning and implementation of a number of systems including the rejuvenation of the existing website and new development of the digital offer for the team including a suite of digital resources. The successful candidate will support on the development of the digital offer, as well as developing a series of communications outputs to support and deliver programs to international markets. The ideal candidate will have some experience of using a range of social media tools including Twitter, YouTube, Facebook and Instagram and ideally have some language capability in Mandarin, Arabic, Spanish or Portuguese.

You must hold at least a grade C or equivalent in Math's and English at GCSE. You must have the right to work in the UK without restriction for the duration of the program. You must be available for the whole 10-week period without taking time for holiday. You must be available for a half day assessment center on either the 22 or 24 March 2017.

Further information

Since we were set up in 1934, the British Council has developed thousands of partnerships with over 100 countries all over the world. It is a job that we take tremendous pride in, but none of it would be possible without the hard work of our teams in the UK. If you are keen to learn more about working for a global organization, and to make a real difference over the summer, then this opportunity is definitely for you. Each year we look to bring fresh ideas to the organization by taking a cohort of interns over the summer. We get to work with new talent and creativity, plus an insight into how we can deliver the best opportunities to young people; you get to learn new skills while on a paid internship and kick start to your international career. This year, we are looking for candidates with digital skills that hold the creative capability to develop impactful solutions to complex, real world problems for a truly global organization. If you are a recent graduate or undergraduate who is passionate about technology and eager to learn in our fast-paced environment then we would love to hear from you.
