

General Criteria on the assessment of the Master's Degree Final Project, For the Committee's use

1.- Quality of the project: up to 6 points

The following aspects will be taken into account:

- Formal aspects
- Introduction: idea, extension and currency of references
- Scientific methodology: participants, procedures and analysis
- Results
- Conclusions / Discussion

2. - Presentation and Defence: up to 4 points

The following aspects will be taken into account:

- Presentation: clarity, organization of the topic, schematisation of the main results
- Project defence taking into account how the questions proposed by the committee are answered: knowledge on the topic, development of alternative hypotheses, continuation of the presented study.