

RESOLUTION of 11 January 2023, of the Rectorate of the Universitat de València, announcing a competition to access university teaching positions.

TEXT:

In accordance with the provisions of Article 62 of Organic Law 4/2007, of 12 April (Official State Gazette of 13 April), which amends Organic Law 6/2001, of 21 December, on Universities (Official State Gazette of 24 December), Royal Decree 1312/2007, of 5 October (Official State Gazette of 6 October) and Royal Decree 1313/2007, of 5 October (Official State Gazette of 8 October), which regulate national accreditation and the competitive system to access university teaching bodies, respectively, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 3 of the Regulations for the Selection of Teaching and Research Staff at the University of Valencia, approved by the Governing Council of the University of Valencia on 27 May 2003, amended by agreement of the Governing Council on 23 December 2008 and subsequent revisions; in accordance with article 2.1.f) of the regulations for the electronic administration of the University of Valencia, approved by the Governing Council of the University of Valencia on 23 June 2020, which establishes the obligation to communicate with the University of Valencia through electronic means for persons interested in procedures that may lead to their incorporation as members of the university community, and in accordance with the regulations for the holding of meetings and the adoption of agreements remotely by collegiate bodies of the University, approved by the Governing Council of the University of Valencia on 18 February 2019.

This Rector's Office, in accordance with the public employment offer for the year 2021, relating to university teaching staff and contract associate professor positions at the University of Valencia, published in the Official Gazette of the Autonomous Community of Valencia on 26 May 2021, with the prior authorisation of the competent regional ministry for universities, has resolved to call a public competition (call 174 / 2023), to fill of 1 associate professor position, listed in annex I of this resolution, provided for in the statement of expenditure of the budget of the University of Valencia and included in its current list of positions, for the incorporation of PhD research staff who have obtained the I3 certificate in the framework of the Ramón y Cajal Programme, subject to the following conditions

Bases of the call

One. General rules

1.1. The competitions will be governed by the provisions of Organic Law 6/2001, of 21 December, on Universities (Official State Gazette of 24 December) amended by Organic Law 4/2007, of 12 April (Official State Gazette of 13 April); Royal Legislative Decree 5/2015, of 30 October, approving the amended text of the Law on the Basic Statute for Public Employees (Official State Gazette of 31 October); Royal Decree 1312/2007 of 5 October 2007 (Official State Gazette of 6 October) and Royal Decree 1313/2007 of 5 October 2007 (Official State Gazette of 8 October), which regulate national accreditation and the competitive system for access to university teaching bodies, respectively. Decree 128/2004, of 30 July, of the Council of the Regional Government of Valencia, which approves the Statutes of the University of Valencia (Official Gazette of the Autonomous Community of Valencia 03.08.2004); the Regulations for the Selection of Teaching and Research Staff of the University of Valencia, approved by the Governing Council of the University of Valencia on 27 May 2003 and subsequent modifications; the regulations for the electronic administration of the University of Valencia, approved by the Governing Council of the University of Valencia on 23 June 2020, which establishes the obligation to communicate with the University through electronic means for persons interested in procedures that may lead to their incorporation as members of the university community, the regulations for the holding of meetings and adoption of agreements remotely by collegiate bodies of the University, approved by the Governing Council of the University of Valencia on 18 February 2019; as well as the terms and conditions of this call for applications. In matters not covered by the above provisions, the provisions of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, on the Common Administrative Procedure for Public Administrations (Official State Gazette of 2 October), Law 40/2015, of 1 October, on the Legal Regime of the Public Sector (Official State Gazette of 2 October) and the General Legislation on Civil Servants (Official State Gazette of 2 October) shall apply.

Two. Requirements for candidates

In order to be admitted to each selection process, the following requirements must be met, which must be fulfilled on the closing date of the application submission period and maintained until the time of taking up the post.

2.1. General requirements

a) Be a national of Spain or of a member state of the European Union or of those states to which, by virtue of the international treaties concluded by the European Union and ratified by Spain, the free movement of workers is applicable. The spouse, descendants and descendants of the spouse, of Spanish nationals and nationals of other member states of the European Union, provided that they are not separated by law, under 21 years of age or over 21 years of age and living at their own expense, may also participate. This last benefit shall also apply to family members of nationals of other states when this is provided for in international treaties concluded by the European Union and ratified by Spain. Likewise, applicants of non-EU foreign nationality may also participate when the state of their nationality recognises that Spanish nationals as legally entitled to hold positions similar to those of Spanish university teaching staff in university teaching

b) Not have reached the compulsory retirement age established by the existing legislation on the closing date for the submission of applications.

c) Hold a doctorate degree.

d) Not have been dismissed, by means of disciplinary proceedings, from the service of any of the public administrations or the constitutional or statutory bodies of the autonomous communities, nor to have been disqualified from holding public posts or positions or from access to the civil service body or scale. Applicants who are not Spanish nationals must also prove that they have not been disqualified or are in an equivalent situation, nor have they been subject to a disciplinary or equivalent sanction that prevents, in their state, access to public employment in the same terms.

e) Possess the functional capacity to carry out the tasks corresponding to university teacher.

f) Have paid the examination fees established in this call for applications or provide evidence of exemption from payment or a discount.

2.2. Specific requirements

a) Have a I3 certificate and credit links with the programme indicated in Annex I.

b) Have obtained accreditation to access the body of associate professors in accordance with the provisions of Articles 12 and 13 and the first, second and third additional provisions of Royal Decree 1312/2007, of 5 October. If accreditation has been obtained after the modification introduced by Royal Decree 415/2015, it is necessary to be accredited for the same branch of knowledge which corresponds to the area of knowledge of the position, all in accordance with annex 1 of Royal Decree 1312/2007.

The accreditation regulated in Royal Decree 1312/2007, of 5 October, is considered to have been obtained by teaching staff qualified in accordance with the provisions of Royal Decree 774/2002, of 26 July, which regulates the system of national qualification for access to civil servant university teaching staff bodies and the system for the corresponding access competitions. It will be understood that those qualified for the body of university school full professors are qualified to access the body of associate professors, in accordance with the tenth additional provision of Organic Law 4/2007, of 12 April, (Official State Gazette of 13 April, which amends Organic Law 6/2001, of December, on Universities). Likewise, teaching staff members from European Union member states or from those states in which, by virtue of international treaties signed by the European Union and ratified by Spain, the free movement of workers is applicable, in the terms by which it is defined in the treaty of the European Union, who have reached a position equivalent to that of full professor or associate professor, in accordance with the certification issued by the National Agency for Quality Assessment and Accreditation of Spain (ANECA), at the request of the interested party.

In no case will participation in the access competition be admitted when a position of the same category as the one being announced, assigned to the same area of knowledge, department and centre of the University of Valencia, is held.

Three. Submission of applications

3.1. Submission period: 20 days from the day after the publication of this call in the Official State Gazette (BOE).

All submission periods indicated in this call are understood to be working days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

3.2. Applications must be submitted using the electronic form of the general application form that can be found in the electronic processing environment of the University of Valencia at the following link: <https://www.uv.es/eregistre>.

All the procedures for submitting applications and providing documents will be carried out in this environment.

3.3. It is compulsory to use the specific application form for the category of the position included in Annex II of this call for applications, which can be found on the Human Resources Service for Teaching and Research Staff (PDI) website: <http://www.uv.es/pdi> or directly through the following electronic link: <https://go.uv.es/m6VS2jE>.

The "Guide for applying to competitions for university teaching positions" (Guía para presentarse a las convocatorias para la provisión de plazas de profesorado universitario), containin the instructions for filling in the general application form as well as how to attach the documentation to be submitted by the applicant, can be found on the PDI Human Resources Service website: <http://www.uv.es/pdi> or directly through the following electronic link <https://go.uv.es/Hc2Leq7>. The application form must be completed according to the instructions in this guide.

3.4. Together with the application form (Annex II), the following documentation must be submitted:

a) Photocopy of a national identity document or passport. Applicants who do not have Spanish nationality and are entitled to participate must submit a photocopy of the document accrediting their nationality and, where appropriate, the documents accrediting the family relationship and the circumstances of dependency referred to in base 2.1.a of this call for applications. Likewise, when applicants participate in the selective tests as spouses, in addition to the aforementioned documents, they must present a sworn statement or promise that they are not separated from their respective spouses.

b) Documentation showing fulfilment of the requirements indicated in the second base for participation in the access competitions, except in the case of doctoral degrees issued by the University of Valencia or any other requirement whose documentary evidence is on file at this institution, in which case it will not be necessary to provide them.

Evidence of links to the programme indicated in Annex I shall be provided, if it is not specified in the I3 certificate, by means of a record or equivalent document issued by the institution concerned.

Evidence of nationality and other requirements demanded in the call for applications will be carried out by means of the corresponding documents, certified by the competent authorities of the home country, translated into Spanish, which will be the official language in which the tests will be conducted.

c) Proof of having paid the fees (30 euros) into the account "Derechos de examen - Universidad de Valencia" (University of Valencia exam fees) account number ES21-0049-6721-65-2010001382 of "Banco Santander".

Persons with a disability of 33% or more, members of large families of a special nature, members of single-parent families of a special category and victims of violence against women shall be exempt from paying the fee.

The applicants mentioned in the previous paragraph must expressly state this in the corresponding section of the application form and must submit the corresponding certificates showing their disability or status as a member of a large family or single-parent family (by means of a certificate from the Regional Ministry of Social Welfare or competent body), and victims of acts of violence against women by any of the means of showing evidence provided for in article 9.1 and 9.2 of Law 7/2012, of 23 July 2012, of 23 July 2012.1 and 9.2 of Comprehensive Law 7/2012, of 23 November of the Regional Government of Valencia, against violence against women in the Community of Valencia.

Persons who are members of large families in the general category and members of single-parent families in the general category shall be entitled to a 50 % reduction of the fee.

Failure to pay or payment of less than the amount indicated as fees within the application submission period will be considered an irremediable breach of the rules and will result in non-admission to the competition. Exclusion due to non-compliance with any of the requirements of the call for applications will not entail the right to a refund of the fees.

3.5. Persons applying for more than one position must submit a separate application for each of them, accompanied by additional documentation.

In the case of a joint call for applications, all the positions to which the call for applications refers shall be specified on a single application form, accompanied by a single set of complementary documentation and a single payment of fees. The call for applications is considered to be a joint call when the number referring to the "number of positions" is greater than 1 in Annex 1.

3.6. In the event that more than five vacancies are jointly advertised, the legal quota must be reserved for people with disabilities, provided that they pass the selection processes and provide evidence of their disability, as well as their compatibility to perform the tasks. If this quota is not covered, the number of remaining positions of a general nature shall be increased.

Persons with disabilities must submit a certificate of the degree of disability issued by the competent body with their application.

3.7. In the case of a technical incident referred to in article 32.4 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, on the Common Administrative Procedure of Public Administrations, which makes the ordinary functioning of the corresponding system or application impossible, and until the incident is resolved, the University Valencia may decide to extend the submission periods that have not expired. Both the technical incident and the specific extension of the unexpired period must be published on the notice board.

3.8. The identification and signature systems accepted for interested parties in accordance with the content of Articles 9 and 10 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, are those included in the online office of the University of Valencia.

3.9. If any of the interested parties submits their application in person, the body calling for applications will require them to amend it by submitting the electronic form of the general application form that can be found in the electronic processing environment of the University of Valencia, in the terms of article 68 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October. Thus, the application will only be accepted if it is submitted electronically through the channel that is indicated in the call for applications and within the submission period indicated therein.

Four. Admission of applicants

4.1. Within a maximum period of twenty working days from the end of the application submission period, the Vice-Rector's Office responsible for teaching staff shall issue a resolution declaring the provisional list of admitted and excluded candidates to have been approved.

This resolution, together with the complete lists of candidates admitted and excluded, indicating the reasons for exclusion, will be published on the official notice board of the University of Valencia: <https://webges.uv.es/uvTaeWeb/> and for information purposes on the PDI Human Resources Service website: <http://www.uv.es/pdi>, or directly at the following electronic link: <https://go.uv.es/m5H0Mxp>.

Interested parties may lodge a complaint against the aforementioned decision within ten days of the day following the publication of the notice, or may rectify, if necessary, the defect that led to their exclusion within the same period.

4.2. Within a maximum period of fifteen working days from the end of the complaint period and once these have been resolved, the Vice-Rector's Office responsible for teaching staff will issue a decision approving the definitive list of admitted and excluded candidates, which will be published in the manner established above. An appeal for reconsideration may be lodged with the Rector within one month of the day following its publication on the official notice board of the University of Valencia: <https://webges.uv.es/uvTaeWeb/>.

4.3. In In calls for applications in which a candidate who is or has been a contract associate professor, full professor, university school full professor or associate professor in the same area of knowledge, the candidate will be exempt from taking the second part of the first test. This provision shall not apply to those who have been employed as contract associate professors on an interim basis.

Five. Selection committees. Constitution ceremony

5.1. The composition of the selection committees is as set out in Annex I of this call for applications.

In order to guarantee transparency and objectivity in the appointment of the members of the commissions that will resolve the access competitions, the curricula vitae of the committee members can be requested through the electronic form of the general application form, which can be found in the electronic processing environment of the University de Valencia at the link <https://www.uv.es/eregistre>.

5.2. With regard to the substitution of committee members in the event of abstention, recusal or resignation, the provisions of article 5.2 of the Regulations for the Selection of Teaching and Research Staff of the University of Valencia shall apply.

5.3. The selection committees may meet in person or through the electronic means provided by the University of Valencia. The committees must be constituted within three months from the day following the publication of the appointment of the members in this call for applications. After consulting the rest of the members, the chairperson shall convene the regular members of the standing committee and, where appropriate, the substitutes to proceed the with the committee constitution ceremony, indicating the place, date and time and, where appropriate, the electronic means used.

5.4. The constitution of each committee shall require the attendance of all its members. Regular members who do not attend the constitution ceremony shall resign and be replaced by their substitutes. In the event that, in addition to the regular members, any of the substitutes has a cause for abstention, recusal or resignation, the substitutes for the first, second and third members may be substitute each other in turn.

5.5. Once the committee has been constituted, in the event of absence, the chairperson shall be replaced by the member with the highest category and seniority, and the secretary shall be replaced by the university teacher with the lowest category and seniority. The participation of at least three of the members shall be necessary for the committee to act validly. Members of the committee who are absent for any action shall cease to be members of the committee.

5.6. At the constitution ceremony and prior to the presentation of the candidates, the committee will define and make publicly available in the place indicated for the presentation ceremony, the specific assessment criteria for the access competition, which in any case must respect the criteria set out in Annex IV of this call for applications. The selection tests will have the same value. The committees may not establish criteria that give preference to the results obtained in any one of them.

Six. Presentation ceremony

6.1. The chairperson of the committee will call the admitted candidates, by means of a publication on the official notice board of the University of Valencia, at least fifteen days in advance, in order to hold the presentation ceremony, indicating the chosen method for holding the competition (face-to-face or blended), as well as the date, time and place (and, if applicable, the link to access the ceremony online). In any case, the presentation of the successful candidates must take place within a maximum period of five days from the date of the act of constitution of the committee.

The constitution of the committee and the presentation of the candidates may take place on the same date. At the presentation ceremony, which will be public, the admitted candidates will provide the chairperson of the committee with five copies of their academic, teaching, research and management records (Annex III), as well as a copy of their publications and documents accrediting their merits and five copies of their teaching project (teaching guide and justification of the subject within the syllabus and the research project). a copy of their publications and documents accrediting their merits, and five copies of their teaching project (teaching guide and justification and integration of the subject within the syllabus) and their research project. If a blended mode is chosen, the documentation will be submitted electronically and only one copy of each document will be provided.

6.2. At the presentation ceremony, the committee will indicate the date on which the first test referred to in base seven of this call for applications will be held. If appropriate, the order in which the candidates will speak will be determined by lot and made publicly available, and the place, date and starting time of the first test will be decided and published. In any case, this test must begin no later than five days after the presentation.

6.3. The secretary of the committee shall ensure that the documents submitted by the candidates can be examined by all candidates.

Seven. Holding of tests

7.1. The competitions will consist of two tests.

The first test consists of two parts:

a) Presentation and defence of the teaching project, which must necessarily include at least the syllabus of a compulsory or basic undergraduate subject in the area of knowledge, structured in lessons. If the call specifies a teaching profile, the project must comply with this profile. The candidate will have a maximum of one hour for the defence of the project and a further hour for discussion with the committee.

b) Oral and public presentation of the organisation, methodology and content of a lesson from the programme(s) submitted by the candidate, chosen by the candidate from among three selected by lot. A maximum of two hours to prepare the lesson and a maximum of one hour to give the presentation shall be given. The committee shall then hold a discussion with the candidate for a maximum of one hour.

Each of the members of the committee shall issue an individual report on the performance in the first test for each of the candidates and shall then cast his/her vote.

This test shall be eliminatory for all candidates who do not obtain at least three votes in favour.

The second test will consist of an oral and public presentation by the candidate of his/her curriculum vitae, which should cover teaching, research and management aspects, and his/her research project. If the call for proposals specifies a research profile, the project must comply with this profile. The candidate will have a maximum of ninety minutes to make the presentation. The subsequent discussion with the members of the committee shall not exceed two hours.

The tests will be held at the facilities of the Universitat de València.

7.2. Once the tests referred to in the previous sections have been completed, the committee will issue a reasoned final report, in accordance with the assessment criteria previously agreed by the committee, on the merits and track record of each of the candidates presented and on the performance of each of the tests. If a resolution is adopted unanimously by the committee, the report shall be signed by the secretary with the approval of the chairperson. If this is not the case, an individual report signed by each member of the committee shall be drawn up.

Eight.. Appointment proposal

8.1. In the light of the report(s), the committee shall make a reasoned appointment proposal, which must be approved by at least three votes in favour. The proposal shall include a list of all candidates in order of preference for appointment, without exceeding the number of positions announced. Members voting against the majority proposal shall state the reasons for their vote.

The committee may conclude the competition by proposing that the position should not be filled.

8.2. The reasoned proposal of the committee will be made publicly available on the official notice board of the University of Valencia: <https://webges.uv.es/uvTaeWeb/> within a maximum period of five days from the date of the completion of the tests.

8.3. Candidates may lodge a complaint against the proposal of the committee with the Rector in accordance with the terms set out in base eleven of this call for applications

8.4. The reasoned proposal of the committee will remain published on the official notice board of the University of Valencia: <https://webges.uv.es/uvTaeWeb/>, until at least the end of period for submitting complaints.

8.5. The chairperson of the committee, once the appointment proposal has been made and published, shall send it to the Office of the Principal, together with a copy of all the minutes and reports. He/she will also send a certificate from the secretary of the centre regarding the date of publication on the official notice board of the University of Valencia: <https://webges.uv.es/uvTaeWeb/>. At the end of the period for viewing the proposal, the secretary of the faculty or school shall send the certificate of the entire period for public viewing to the Rector's Office.

Nine. Submission of documents

9.1. Within a maximum period of 20 days from the publication of the proposal to fill the post, the proposed candidate must submit the following documents to the Registry Office of this University or by any of the other procedures indicated in article 16.4 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, on the Common Administrative Procedure of Public Administrations:

- a) Photocopy of his/her national identity card or equivalent document for foreign nationals
- b) Official medical certificate stating that he/she does not suffer from any illness or physical or mental defect that would prevent him/her from carrying out the duties of university teacher.
- c) Sworn declaration of not having been dismissed from any public administration, or from the constitutional or statutory bodies of the Autonomous Communities, nor having been disqualified from holding public posts or positions or from access to the civil service body or scale. Applicants who are not Spanish nationals must present a sworn declaration or promise that they have not been disqualified or are in an equivalent situation, nor have they been subject to a disciplinary or equivalent sanction that prevents, in their state, access to public employment in the same terms

9.2. Those who hold the status of active career civil servants will be exempt from justifying such conditions and requirements and must present a certificate from the administration to which they report, showing their civil servant status and all the circumstances stated in their record of service, except in the case that the administration to which they report is the University of Valencia.

Ten. Appointment

10.1. The Rector shall appoint the proposed candidate, after she/he has provided evidence that she/he meets the general requirements to access the civil service established in the previous base. If the proposed candidate fails to submit the required documentation in due time and form, the Rector shall declare the competition void.

10.2. Appointments will be published in The Official State Gazette and in the Official Gazette of the Autonomous Community of Valencia.

10.3. The proposed candidate shall take up the position within a maximum period of twenty days from the day following publication of the appointment in the Official State Gazette, at which time he/she shall acquire the status of civil servant university teacher in the body in question

Eleven. Appeals

11.1. Candidates may lodge a complaint with the Rector of the University of Valencia against the proposal of the committee within a maximum period of 10 days. If the complaint is upheld, appointments shall be suspended until the decision is made.

11.2. The complaint will be assessed by the Complaints Committee, which will ratify or reject the contested appointment proposal within three months.

11.3. This committee shall assess the purely procedural aspects and shall verify that the Selection Committee effectively respects the candidates' equality of conditions and the principles of merit and ability.

11.4. This committee shall assess the purely procedural aspects and shall verify that the Selection Committee effectively respects equal conditions for candidates and the principles of merit and ability.

11.5. The resolution of the Rector, following a binding proposal by the Complaints Committee, exhausts the administrative channels and appeals may be brought directly before the contentious-administrative jurisdiction.

Twelve. Information on the data collected

The Universitat de València Estudi General is the entity responsible for the data provided by the candidates in this process. The information provided by applicants will be processed exclusively for the purposes of the call for applications, as well as, where appropriate, the subsequent management of personnel in accordance with the provisions of Organic Law 6/2001, of 21 December, on universities. All or part of the data provided will be published on the official notice board of the University of Valencia. The candidates' data will be kept indefinitely for the fulfilment of the aforementioned purposes, in accordance with the provisions of Law 3/2005, of 15 June, on the Archives of the Regional Government of Valencia.

Candidates have the right to request from the data controller access to their personal data, its rectification or erasure, or the limitation of its processing, or oppose its processing, as well as the right to data portability, by means of a letter accompanied by a copy of an identity document and, where appropriate, accrediting documentation for the request, addressed to the Data Protection Delegate at the University of Valencia.

The University of Valencia has created an email address (lop@uv.es) for any information, suggestions, requests for the exercise of rights and the amicable resolution of disputes regarding the protection of personal data, without prejudice to the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority.

Our privacy policies can be found at <http://links.uv.es/qBf2qd6>.

Thirteen. Final rule

Against this resolution, which exhausts the administrative channels, an appeal for reconsideration may be lodged with the Rector of the University of Valencia, within a period of one month, or directly with the Chamber for Contentious-

Administrative Proceedings of the High Court of Justice of the Community of Valencia, within a period of two months. Both periods shall be counted from the day following the day of publication of this call for applications. If an appeal for reconsideration is chosen, a contentious-administrative appeal may not be lodged until it has been expressly resolved or the first has been rejected, in accordance with the provisions of articles 123 and 124 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, on the Common Administrative Procedure for the Public Administrations.

Valencia, 11 January 2023. - Rector: María Vicenta Mestre Escrivá.
