

The Center for World University Rankings (CWUR)

The distribution of objectives and robust indicators used to develop this ranking are listed below:

Indicator	Definition	Weight
Quality of Education	number of a university's alumni who have won major international awards, prizes and medals relative to the university's size	25%
Alumni Employment	number of a university's alumni who currently hold CEO (chief executive officer) positions at the world's top companies relative to the university's size	25%
Quality of Faculty	number of academics who have won major international awards, prizes and medals	25%
Publications	number of research papers appearing in reputable journals	5%
Influence	number of research articles published in highly influential journals	5%
Citations	number of highly-cited research articles	5%
Broad Impact	measured by the university's h -Index	5%
Patents	number of international patent filings	5%

ACCESS:

<http://cwur.org/methodology.php>