5. SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF THE EXCHANGE

According to the Framework Agreement between Universitat de Valencia and Shanghai International Studies University, the parts agree to establish a cooperation and a students' exchange program according to the following:

5.1. The exchange proposals shall comply with the provisions established in this agreement under specific schemes of reciprocity. Both institutions will review the exchange program on a regular basis for any imbalances in the number of students exchanged and will adjust the numbers as necessary to maintain a well-balanced program.

5.2. Students' nominations will be done by their institution within the nomination periods. Those nominations will be conditioned to the approval by both institutions, according to the established requirements.

5.3. Students shall pay the tuition fees at the home institution and are exempt from paying the tuition fees at the host institution.

5.4. The length of the academic stay shall be established in the terms and conditions offered at each institution.

5.5. The host institution shall provide directly the home institution with an official certificate of qualifications obtained by the student at the end of the stay. These certificates shall be considered valid without the need to be accredited in any other way.

5.6. The host institution shall officially inform the home institution with sufficient prior notice of the acceptance of students for the exchange.

5.7. With regard to health insurance, students shall adhere to regulations in force at the host institution. The student is responsible for taking the proper steps to obtain insurance.

5.8. The duration of this agreement is four (4) years, starting in the 2023-2024 academic course, unless denounced by a six (6) months prior written notice and without affecting the completion of any activity underway at the time. The duration of the agreement can be extended by equal period to four years if there is no objection from both parties.
