

The Second Symposium

Deorientalizing citizenship?

European Research Council (ERC) funded Oecumene Project,
Faculty of Social Sciences, The Open University

12–13 November 2012

Goodenough College
London

Day 1 12 November 2012

- 09.30–10.00 Registration
- 10.00–10.30 Introduction by Professor Engin Isin (The Open University)
- 10.30–13.00 PANEL 1: Orientalism, colonialism and citizenship
Speakers: Sukanya Banerjee (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee), Piyel Haldar (Birkbeck), Jack Harrington (The Open University), Meyda Yeğenoğlu (Istanbul Bilgi Üniversitesi).
- 13.00–14.30 Lunch
- 14.30–16.30 PANEL 2: Democratizing politics, decolonizing citizenship
Speakers: Bela Bhatia (Tata Institute of Social Sciences), Charles Hirschkind (UC Berkeley), Aamir Mufti (UCLA), Sasha Roseneil (Birkbeck).
- 16.30–17.00 Coffee
- 17.00–18.30 Keynote lecture by Professor Walter Dignolo (Duke University) Citizenship, Knowledge and the Limits of Humanity (II)
- 18.30–20.00 Wine reception

Day 2 13 November 2012

- 10.30–12.45 Roundtable on Citizenship Studies
- 12.45–14.15 Lunch
- 14.15–16.30 PANEL 3: The universal after orientalism
Speakers: Gurminder Bhambra (Warwick), Sudeep Dasgupta (University of Amsterdam), Antke Engel (Institute for Queer Theory), Kate Nash (Goldsmiths).
- 16.30–17.00 Coffee
- 17.00–18.30 Keynote lecture by Professor Saba Mahmood (University of California, Berkeley) Religious Difference and the Minority Problem in Contemporary Law

oecumene
citizenship after orientalism