THE SWEDISH FORUM FOR WORKING LIFE (FALF) INVITES YOU TO THE 2013 NATIONAL WORKING LIFE CONFERENCE TO BE HELD JUNE 17-19.

CHANGES IN WORKING LIFE:

INDIVIDUAL, ORGANIZATIONAL, AND METHODOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

This multidisciplinary conference welcomes researchers and practitioners to discuss the challenges of today's working life from a variety of perspectives. The theme of the 2013 FALF conference is Changes in Working Life: Individual, Organizational, and Methodological Perspectives. The theme reflects tendencies in the development of work life by focusing on the tension between individual working conditions and well-being, on one hand, and organizational characteristics and conditions, on the other.

CALL FOR PAPERS!

We welcome presentations of all types of work life research, in Swedish or English.

The topic of your presentation may relate to financial, legal, technological, and organizational conditions and challenges in working life. It may also concern the conditions, circumstances, development opportunities, commitment, and health of individuals. You are also welcome to address the methodological challenges of studying the links between individual and organization in today's changing work life. We look forward to an exciting conference with presentations from a range of different disciplines.

You are welcome to submit proposals for oral and poster presentations. Other presentation forms will also be considered, such as a symposium, workshop or panel debate. Those who wish to present in English are encouraged to do so since we are expecting international participants.
