

Membership of the European Privacy Officers' Network (EPON) is open to Privacy/Data Protection professionals working for organisations operating in more than one country. Members have European responsibilities for privacy, which may be part of wider regional or worldwide functions.