1 About this deliverable

1.1 Introduction

This document contains a copy of the promotional material presenting the Positive project, its consortium and project progress/results consisting of a slide project presentation, a printed (and electronic) project brochure and a project poster. Its submission was delayed until bio-sensing results were made available.

All this material is downloadable by the general public via the Positive website: <http://www.fp7positive.eu>

The slide project presentation and poster will be used by the partners where possible for general dissemination of the project.

The initial flyers were electronically distributed to the >100 Positive User Forum partners in December, 2010 and the end of year one flyers were sent out in October 2011. The end of year two flyers are to be sent out in November 2012.
