

ENLIGHTENED FEMALE NETWORKS: GENDERED WAYS OF PRODUCING KNOWLEDGE

Friday 13 November 2020

9.30 -10.00 am CET Introduction and short round of presentations

10.00 - 12.20 SESSION 1

Commentator/Chair: Anna Maerker (King's College London)

'A thankless enterprise': Lady Mary Wortley Montagu's Intervention in Early Eighteenth-century Disease Management. HELEN ESFANDIARY (King's College London)

The Changing Role of Women in Marie-Anne Paulze-Lavoisier's Network (1771-1836). FRANCESCA ANTONELLI (University of Bologna/EHESS)

Non-linear Networks: From Women in Science as "Exceptions" to the Gendered Lab. PAOLA GOVONI (University of Bologna)

13.00 - 14.40 SESSION 2

Commentator/Chair: Simon Werrett (University College London)

Les Femmes Économistes: The Place of Women in the Physiocratic Community. LOÏC CHARLES (Université de Paris 8 Saint-Denis) and CHRISTINE THÉRÉ (Institut National d'Études Démographiques)

Maritime Crossroads: The Knowledge Pursuit of María de Betancourt (Tenerife, 1758-1824) and Joana de Vigo (Menorca, 1779-1855). MÓNICA BOLUFER (Universitat de València) and ELENA SERRANO (Universitat de València/MPIWG-Berlin)

16.00 - 17.40 SESSION 3

Commentator/Chair: Elena Serrano (Universitat de València/MPIWG-Berlin)

Gender and Botany in Early Nineteenth-Century Portugal: The Circle of Leonor de Almeida, the Marquise of Alorna. PALMIRA FONTES DA COSTA (Universidade Nova de Lisboa/CIUHCT)

Queen Charlotte's Networks. MASCHA HANSEN (Greifswald)

18.00 - 18.30 CONCLUDING REMARKS

Saturday 14 November 2020

10.30-11.30 Organizers meeting

11.30-12.30 Preparing a special issue: next steps

