

From the early twentieth century, there has been a boom in the number of digital resources relevant for the study of nineteenth-century literature. Here you may find some of these electronic resources useful for your study of the module Nineteenth-Century Literature at the Universitat de València.

The materials on these websites complement the texts in Teruel, M. & Monrós, L. Nineteenth-Century Literature. A Reader. Valencia: Publicacions Universitat de València, 2012.

Unless otherwise specified, all the resources are either free of access or under subscription of the library services at the Universitat de València.

The following links provide annotated bibliographies and review essays on some of the sources below:
