Registration closing

Enrolment will close the first week of the start of each module or, earlier, when the maximum number of students enrolled in the available groups has been exceeded.

Cancellation of the course

Completion of the modules of this program is subject to the enrolment of a minimum number of students set in each one. If the number of students does not reach the minimum set, the course may be cancelled. It is also at the discretion of the Management to divide or cancel a group based on the needs of the Centre. This circumstance will be made known to the people affected, who will receive information from other available groups or, where appropriate, the full refund of the amounts paid.

The cancellation of a course entitles the enrolled students to request a refund of the registration fee or to be transferred to another course in the CdIUV of the same, lower, or higher amount (paying the user or the CdIUV the economic difference) within the same academic year, all this provided there are still available places, and the requirements of the new courses are met.

The reasons for cancellation are as follows:

- a) Cancellation of a course for not reaching the minimum number of students.
- b) Administrative error.
- c) Due to supervening force majeure.
- d) Change of schedule and / or dates by the teaching staff.

Conditions of the right of withdrawal

Before the start of the course, and without giving any the reason, the user may exercise their right to withdraw from the contract within a period of 14 calendar days from the date of payment of the enrolment fee.

If the right of withdrawal is exercised once the course has begun, but within a period of 14 calendar days from the date when the enrolment was formalised, the amount paid will be refunded, discounting the proportional amount corresponding to the part of the course taken from the start date until the date when withdrawal is notified.

How to withdraw

To exercise their right of withdrawal, regardless of the type of course, the user must notify their decision to withdraw from the contract in writing to the Language Centre Secretary's Office.

To comply with the withdrawal period, it is sufficient to send notification of the exercise of withdrawal before the corresponding period expires. The Language Centre will return all payments received within a maximum period of 14 calendar days from the date on which the user notifies their decision to withdraw from the contract.

Any refund derived from the exercise of the right of withdrawal will be made using the same means of payment used by the user for the initial transaction. In any event, the user will not incur any costs because of repayment.

Cancellation and withdrawals

Regardless of the right of withdrawal, you may request a refund of the amount paid according to the instructions set out below. The request must be made by email to the Language Centre Secretary's Office: contactocdi@uv.es

In general, it is established:

- If the Student cannot start the module due to force majeure, they may request a refund of the enrolment fee up to two days before the start of the module.
- Once the classes of the module enrolled in have started, requests to refund the enrolment fee will not be accepted.

Refunds due to visa refusal

If students need some kind of visa for their studies and it has been refused and they are unable to begin their programme of studies, they may request cancellation due to force majeure.

Instructions for requesting the refund of the amounts paid

1. The student must send the request for cancellation and refund of the amounts paid within a maximum period of 30 days from the date of receiving the communication from the Embassy or Consulate.
2. The student must communicate in writing to secretariacdi@uv.es the cancellation due to visa refusal and attach the official document of refusal, dated, signed and stamped, issued by the Spanish Embassy or Consulate. The official refusal document must clearly state the student's name, passport number and the type of visa requested.
3. If the student appeals and the visa is denied again, the CDIUV will reimburse the full amount of the course, except for the pre-registration fees.
4. If the student does not join the selected course after having received a study visa justified by one of our programmes, no reimbursement will be made and the foreigners' authorities who issued the study visa will be informed of the situation.
