

2025 Chinese Bridge Competition

What is the Chinese Bridge competition?

The Chinese Bridge competition is a contest whose main objective is to increase the dissemination of Mandarin Chinese, awaken the interest for the teaching of Confucius language worldwide among students and consolidate the knowledge of Chinese language and culture. In this contest, the students can show their level of Chinese, as well as the knowledge of Chinese culture, etc. The contestants will participate at the beginning in the local phase, the winners will enter the final phase and the finalists of national phase will enter world phase, which will take place in China.

This contest, promoted by the Chinese International Education Foundation, the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Spain, together with the Confucius Institutes, calls for this year the celebration of the 24th Chinese Bridge World Contest and 18th Contest for Secondary Students.

The local phase of the Chinese Bridge Competition will take place on Saturday, 12 April 2025-17:00 at the Confucius Institute University of València, (Faculty of Philology, Translation and Communication, Avda Blasco Ibáñez, 32. València).
