Congratulations! Your paper, “Coronavirus versus the textile industry: cluster lessons for future challenges” was selected as the most outstanding paper in Economics of Clothing and Textiles/Fashion Business areas. It was published in the Fashion and Textiles, the Springer Open Journal of the Korean Society of Clothing and Textiles (KSCT).

The fashion and textiles’ unique scope focuses on all aspects of research related to fashion and the textile industry. In today’s rapidly changing and increasingly complex environments of academia and industry, this discipline becomes more intertwined. Fashion and Textiles provides scholars and industry experts with a platform to showcase the latest progress in this exciting and ever-developing field. Fashion and Textiles has been selected for coverage in Clarivate Analytics products and services and indexed and abstracted in Science Citation Index Expanded (SCIE) and SCOPUS. The journal reaches diverse authors and readers.

The Fashion and Textiles Best Paper Award recognizes outstanding papers that contribute to theoretical advancement and facilitate collaborative studies in the field of fashion and textiles. This selection is made from papers published in the journal during the previous year.

Thank you for submitting your outstanding work to the Fashion and Textiles! We look forward to your continued contribution to our journal. Congratulations!
