The International Society for New Institutional Economics (ISNIE) will hold its 9th Annual Conference at Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona, September 22-24, 2005.

The program committee, chaired by President-Elect Benito Arruñada, invites you to submit your proposal to present a paper at the conference. Proposals are due by March 1, 2005 at isnie2005@wueconc.wustl.edu. They must be sent as a MS Word document and should include:

- an abstract of a maximum of 200 words;
- a short biosketch no longer than 100 words; and
- contact information, including affiliation, e-mail, telephone, fax and postal address.

You must be a current member of ISNIE for a proposal to be considered.

ISNIE. The International Society for New Institutional Economics was founded to stimulate and disseminate interdisciplinary research on economic, political and social institutions and their effects on economic activity. ISNIE encourages rigorous theoretical and empirical investigation of these topics using approaches drawn from economics, organization theory, law, political science, and other social sciences.

Registration. In order to register for the conference, you must be a current member of ISNIE, with your membership dues paid for 2005. For forms and additional information, visit <http://www.isnie.org>.
