

RESOLUTION of 15th October, 2021, issued by the dean of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia, making public the call and regulatory bases of the III FdE INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY AWARD #ORIFdE2022 of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia.

Using the powers conferred by the resolution of 12th January, 2021, issued by the Rectorate of the University of Valencia (DOGV of 18th January, 2021), which approves the delegation of functions to the vice-rectors, general secretary, bursar, and other bodies of this university, the dean of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia:

RESOLVES

First

That the call and regulatory bases of the III FdE INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY AWARD #ORIFdE2022 of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia, which are included as an annex to this resolution, are approved.

Second

That the corresponding file contains an adequate and sufficient budgetary allocation to meet all expenditures arising from this call. Finance for this award is based on Chapter IV of the 2021 budget of the University of Valencia (organic 3050000000) for an amount of 425 euros. The award consists of a first prize of 150 euros, a second prize of 100 euros, a third prize of 75 euros, and two consolation prizes of 50 euros.

Third

That against this resolution, which exhausts administrative proceedings, an appeal for reversal may be filed within one month of the day after its publication before the same body that issued it or directly by contentious-administrative appeal before the bodies of the contentious-administrative jurisdiction of the Valencian Community within two months of the day after its publication.

Dean of the Faculty of Economics
Valencia, 15th October, 2021

ANNEX I. THE III INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY AWARD RULES INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE OF THE FACULTY OF ECONOMICS. UNIVERSITY OF VALENCIA.

1. OBJECTIVE

The aim of this competition is to reward the photographs taken by students that best illustrate 'European feeling' while they are participating in international mobility programmes (Erasmus Programme or International Programme). Any photograph taken by an incoming or outgoing student of the Faculty of Economics in the academic year 2021-2022 may compete for this award in accordance with the instructions below.

This award is compatible with any other grant, aid, income or resource awarded for the same purpose.

2. PARTICIPANTS

Any incoming or outgoing student of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia who, in the academic year 2021-2022, is undertaking or has undertaken a European or International university mobility programme may participate. Participants must have an account on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram that has a public profile and must respect the terms of use of these social networks.

3. CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

3.1. Candidate photographs must be submitted in accordance with the requirements below:

- a) Each participant may submit only one photograph.
- b) Submitted photographs must be original (taken by the author during their mobility) and must not have received a previous award.
- c) Photographs of minors or recognizable individuals with advertising, political and/or religious references will be excluded. Retouched or already existing photos will also be excluded. The photographs must not violate the rights of third parties or represent third parties, whose consent and authorization must be requested.
- d) The subject may be any aspect related to the 'European feeling experienced by students on a mobility programme or university exchange'. Many examples from everyday life (e.g. respect, an effort to improve, higher education, European adventure, solidarity, etc.) illustrate this European feeling.

3.2. The procedure for participating and submitting a photograph is as follows:

- a) Participants have to post a photograph on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram that illustrates your European feeling or spirit while conducting your Erasmus or International mobility programme during the academic year 2021-2022.
- b) Participants have always to mention or refer to the Faculty of Economics.
The institutional accounts of the Faculty of Economics are:
 - o Twitter: @FdEconomiaUV
 - o Instagram: @fdeconomiauv
 - o Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/fac.economia.uv.es>)
- c) Publish the photograph with hashtag #ORIFdE2022 of the Faculty of Economics, and add a brief caption to identify the photograph.

Any photograph submitted outside the established channels or after the submission deadline will not be considered. Any photograph that does not comply with the stipulations outlined in these bases will also not be accepted and it will not be considered for an award.

Following the 7th competence of this resolution, we inform you that the detection of the use of gadgets designed to automatize repetitive tasks with the purpose of obtaining more likes or visibility in any of the platforms used for this award, would be a motive of immediate disqualification. Furthermore, the Faculty of Economics would have the right to report the correspondent complaint of the offender user to the owner platform.

Winning photographs will remain at the Faculty of Economics. Photographs that do not receive an award cannot be erased or eliminated from the Faculty's databases until all awards have been presented and the deadlines for appeals, as referred to in clause 12 of this resolution, have expired.

4. DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION

Photographs may be submitted from the day after this resolution has been published in the UV Tauler and in the website of Faculty of Economics until 2 pm on the 28th February, 2022.

5. CONCESSION PROCEDURE

The concession procedure will be the competitive concurrence regime in accordance with section 1 of chapter II of the title X of the Law 1/2015 of the 6th of February on public finances, the instrumental public sector and subsidies.

The concession resolution will be made within six months of the publication of this call, in accordance with article 25 of Law 38/2003, of 17th November on general subsidies

6. AWARD

The corresponding file contains an adequate and sufficient budgetary allocation to meet all expenditures arising from this call. Finance for this award is based on Chapter II of the 2021 budget of the University of Valencia, organic 3050000000, for an amount of 425.00 euros.

The award consists of a first prize of 150 euros; a second prize of 100 euros; a third prize of 75 euros; and two consolation prizes of 50 euros.

7. JURY AND ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Once the photograph-submission period has ended, the jury will draw up a shortlist of 10 photographs. The jury will comprise two people from the International Relations Office of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia and one representative of the secretary of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia.

The 10 shortlisted photographs will then be published on the official Instagram account of the Faculty of Economics with #ORIFdE2022 so that all the candidates' friends and acquaintances and anyone who is interested can vote for their favourite photograph by 'liking' it. The photograph with the most 'likes' and votes among the jury wins the contest. (Likes are worth 49% and the votes of the jury are worth 51% of the final score)

The 10 shortlisted photographs will be exhibited in the hall of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia from March 3rd to March 9th, 2021. The Faculty of Economics may email the shortlisted candidates to request the photographs to ensure there is no loss of quality.

Voting online via Instagram will be possible from March 3rd, 2022, to 2 pm on March 9th, 2022.

The jury has the authority to interpret and resolve any circumstance not considered in these rules in order to ensure the objective nature of the award. The members of the jury will be listed on the websites of the Faculty of Economics and the International Relations Office of the Faculty of Economics.

The jury will evaluate the photographs mainly on their ability to capture and generate empathy through the image presented. This image should illustrate situations that generate or help to disseminate the underlying values of the Erasmus+ or international mobility programme (i.e. respect, solidarity, an effort to improve higher education, solidarity, etc.). The jury will also take into consideration the quality of the photographs.

These awards may be declared void if the responsible jury for shortlisting the photographs considers that no photograph has the necessary merits to win.

8. RESOLUTION OF THE AWARD

Once the deadline for online voting has passed (following the lines of the 7th base) The jury will submit a concession proposal to the Dean of the Faculty of Economics, who will then decide on the awards.

On March 11st, 2022, the concession resolution will be published on the official noticeboard of the University of Valencia (<https://tauler.uv.es>). All finalists will be informed of the concession resolution via email.

The concession resolution will also be published on the website of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia (<http://www.uv.es/economia>) and on the website of the International Relations Office of the Faculty of Economics and by any other means considered appropriate.

Participation in this competition implies that the candidates know, understand and accept these bases.

9. COMPETENT BODIES FOR ORDER, INSTRUCTION AND RESOLUTION OF THE PROCEDURE

The Dean of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia is responsible for processing this procedure.

The Dean of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Valencia will decide on concession of the prize by taking into account the award proposal submitted by the members of the jury, who will assess the results of the online voting on the Instagram account of the Faculty of Economics in accordance with the criteria outlined in clause 7th above.

The terms of this call will be published on the official noticeboard of the University of Valencia (<https://tauler.uv.es>), the website of the Faculty of Economics (<http://www.uv.es/economia>), the website of the International Relations Office of the Faculty of Economics and by any other means considered appropriate. Any subsequent communication with shortlisted candidates will be conducted via email.

10. SUPPLETIVE RULES

Also applicable are Law 1/2015, of February 6, of the autonomous government of Valencia, on public finance, the instrumental public sector and subsidies; and Law 39/2015, of October 1, on the common administrative procedure of public administrations.

Also applicable are Law 34/2002, on services of the information society and electronic commerce (LSSI) in relation to how information is provided on the Internet; Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, on the protection of personal data and the safeguarding of digital rights; Legislative Royal Decree 1/1996, of April 12, for which the revised text of the Intellectual Property Law is approved dependent on the purposes of the promotion; Organic Law 1/1982, of May 5, on the civil protection of one's right to honour, personal and family privacy, and self-image.

If there is any discrepancy between the text of the call for the III International Mobility Award shown in any of the three versions (Spanish, Valencian and English), the Spanish version will prevail.

11. PERSONAL DATA

The data of participants in this competition will be incorporated into the information systems of the University of Valencia in order to manage and process the request in accordance with the provisions of Law 38/2003, of November 17, on general aid.

The following communication of personal data is expected:

- The concession resolution will be published on the official noticeboard of the University of Valencia.
- For informational purposes, the resolution may also be published on web pages hosted on the official website of the University of Valencia.
- Information about the beneficiaries, amount and objective of the award will be published at the transparency portal of the University of Valencia (www.uv.es/transparencia) in order to comply with the provisions of article 8.1 a) of Law 19/2013, of December 9, on transparency, access to public information and good governance and the provisions of article 9.1 e) of Law 2/2015, of April 2, on transparency, good governance and citizen involvement in the autonomous community of Valencia.
- In accordance with article 20 of Law 38/2003, of November 17, on general subsidies, information will be published in the National Subsidies Database (BDNS).
- If applicable, information will be published in banks to facilitate payment of the awards.

Candidates may exercise their right to access or rectify their data or to cancel or oppose data treatment by sending an email to lopd@uv.es from an official address of the University of Valencia or by sending a letter plus a copy of their identity document and any supporting documents to the General Secretariat of the University of Valencia (av. de Blasco Ibañez, 13, 46010, Valencia).

12. APPEALS

An administrative appeal may be lodged against the resolution of these awards (which closes the administrative procedure) before the same body that issued the resolution within one month of the day after publication of the resolution. Alternatively, an appeal may be made before the administrative courts of the autonomous government of Valencia within two months of the day after publication of the resolution.
