

ADVICE TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT FOR THE CONVERSION OF LANGUAGES COURSES IN TOURISM DEGREE

A. “English language communication for Tourism II” and “English language communication for Tourism III” courses conversion.

1. In order to include the subject “English language communication for Tourism II” in the Learning Agreement is mandatory to have previously passed “English language communication for Tourism I”.
2. In order to include the subject “English language communication for Tourism III” in the Learning Agreement is mandatory to have previously passed “English language communication for Tourism I” and “English language communication for Tourism II”.
3. To convert the subjects “English language communication for Tourism II” and “English language communication for Tourism III” lessons must be taught in English alike to the convert subject’s content and level.

B. “Second foreign language communication for Tourism II” and “Second foreign language communication for Tourism III” course conversion

1. In order to include the subject “Second foreign language communication for Tourism II” in the Learning Agreement is mandatory to have previously passed “Second foreign language communication for Tourism I”.
2. In order to include the subject “Second foreign language communication for Tourism III” in the Learning Agreement is mandatory to have previously passed “Second foreign language communication for Tourism I” and “Second foreign language communication for Tourism II”.

3. To convert the subjects “Second foreign language communication for Tourism II” and “Second foreign language communication for Tourism III” lessons must be taught in a foreign language (German, French or Italian) alike to the convert subject’s content and level. In any case will be converted the second foreign language course if the teaching language differs in the enrollment.

C. Other courses different from English or Second foreign language

1. Language course which doesn’t meet the above requirements can be converted for a generic optional course.

It is the student’s responsibility to include in their Learning Agreement and enrollment the subjects that suit the above-mentioned criteria. On the contrary, the student will bear the consequences and the language courses may not be converted.

I ACCEPT AND SIGN THE PREVIOUS REQUIREMENTS

Valencia, _____ of _____ 20_____

Surname:

Name:

Signature:

