

The University of Valencia in cooperation with the University of Bergamo, the University of Groningen, Heidelberg University, the University of Linz, the Vienna University of Economics and Business, the Catholic University of Louvain, and the University of Luxembourg invites you to the

11th DOCTORAL SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL AND EU TAX LAW

6th to 7th September 2021 — University of Valencia

The Seminar is open to Ph.D. candidates in the fields of international, European and comparative tax law. It follows successful events held in Bergamo, Linz, Heidelberg, Valencia, Luxembourg, Louvain-la-Neuve and Groningen.

Ph.D. candidates in their second and third year are invited to present their research projects and/or major results, depending on the level of progress. Each presentation will be followed by feedback and discussion with a panel consisting of tax professors and leading experts from practice, including EU institutions. In order to allow sufficient time for in-depth debates and valuable feedback, the number of presentations is strictly limited. The maximum number of Ph.D. participants is 12.

Interested Ph.D. candidates are encouraged to submit a one-page expose of their proposed presentation topic. The presentation should address the following points:

- The topic: What is your research question?
- The hypothesis: What are the ideas challenged/to be tested?
- The methodological framework: How are you going to answer your question(s)?
- The potential results: What is your preliminary conclusion on the hypotheses?
- The novelty: What are the points no one else has made so far (or not in this way)?
- The stage of your research: When did you start? When will your thesis be finalized?

If the health crisis related to the COVID-19 allows, the seminar will be held at the premises of the University of Valencia. Otherwise, the seminar will take place online/virtually.

Participants must be able and willing to bear their own costs of travel and accommodation. A limited number of part-cost travel grants might be available.

Please submit your application via e-mail to tax@uv.es on or before 21st June 2021.

All applicants will be informed by the 7th of July 2021 if their application has been accepted.
