

Writing: American Pie

Listen to the song American Pie and choose one of the following options. Write an essay of 500 words maximum.

Please do not forget to include a list of bibliographic references (both online and/or printed) at the end of your essay.

Genre: personal opinion

Essay 1. The content and meaning of this song is argued to be ambiguous; the author Don Mclean admits to it still being debated. What do you think the song is about? What does it tell you personally?

Essay 2. The song talks about a period in American history. What years does the song make reference to? Choose one event that you consider more relevant than others during that period. Why is it important to you?
