CV Resume

Aniceto Masferrer is Professor of Legal History and teaches legal history and comparative law at the Faculty of Law, University of Valencia, Spain. He has been a fellow researcher at the Institute Max-Planck for European Legal History (2000-2003), Visiting Professor at the University of Cambridge (2005), Visiting Scholar at Harvard Law School (2006-07) and at Melbourne Law School (2008), and Visiting Professor at the University of Tasmania (2010), Visiting Scholar at Louisiana State University – The Paul M. Hebert Law Center – (2013), Visiting Scholar at George Washington University Law School (as the Recipient of the Richard & Diane Cummins Legal History Research Grant for 2014), and Visiting Professor at the École Normale Supérieure – Paris (2015). He has lectured at universities around the world (France, Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands, Malta, Israel, United Kingdom, Sweden, Norway, USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand).

He is the author of ten books (including his Spanish Legal Traditions. A Comparative Legal History Outline, Madrid, 2009; 2012, 2nd ed.) and the editor of fourteen (including Post 9/11 and the State of Permanent Legal Emergency: Security and Human Rights in Countering Terrorism, Springer, 2012; Counter-Terrorism, Human Rights and The Rule of Law. Crossing Legal Boundaries in Defence of the State, Edward Elgar Publishing, 2013; La Codificación española. Una aproximación doctrinal e historiográfica a sus influencias extranjeras, y a la francesa en particular, Thomson Reuters-Aranzadi, 2014; Human Dignity of the Vulnerable in the Age of Rights: Interdisciplinary Perspectives, Springer, 2016; The Western Codification of Criminal Law: The Myth of the Predominant French Influence in Europe and America Revisited, Springer, 2018; Comparative Legal History, Edward Elgar Publishing, 2019; Criminal Law and Morality in the Age of Consent: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Springer, 2020), and around hundred book chapters/articles published in Spanish, European and American law journals. He has published extensively on criminal law from an historical and comparative perspective, as well as on the codification movement and fundamental rights in the Western legal tradition.

He has participated in several international research projects and has been the main researcher of several research projects (for example, on “Security and Human Rights in countering terrorism from a historical and comparative perspective,” which involved more than thirty scholars from several universities (Spanish, European, Northern-American, Canadian and Australian universities), and whose results were published in three collective monographs, coordinated by himself (and edited by Aranzadi-Thomson Reuters 2011; Springer 2012; and Edward Elgar Publishing 2013). Currently, he is leading a research project (financed by Economics and Competitiveness Ministry) on the foreign influences in Spanish Codification of criminal law (ref. DER2012-38469; DER201678388-P; PID2019-105871GB-I00).

He is author of four books for teaching purposes. He is now coordinating a casebook on comparative legal traditions (A Companion to Western Legal Traditions, Brill, 2023). In 2010 he received the award ‘Teaching Excellence’ (which is annually granted by the Valencian Government to the best university lecturer).

He writes opinion articles in both local and national newspapers (ABC, El Mundo y Las Provincias) and has published four books for a general audience: Para una nueva cultura política (Catarata, 2019), Manual de ética para la vida moderna (EDAF, 2020), La eutanasia en España. Perspectivas desde la vulnerabilidad (Rialp, 2021), and Libertad y ética pública. Por qué pensar críticamente es clave para salvar la democracia (Almuzara, 2022).

He is a member of the advisory board of several Spanish, European and Anglo-American Law Journals, and the Chief Editor of GLOSSAE. European Journal of Legal History (<http://www.glossae.eu>). He is member – and former president – of the European Society for Comparative Legal History (2010-2018), and vice-president of the Fundación Universitas (www.fundacionuniversitas.org). He is also the Director of the Institute for Social, Political and Legal Studies, member of the Spanish Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation, and board member of the Valencian Committee for European Affairs.

Works-in-progress

- Main researcher of the research project I+D (MINECO) entitled “Tradición e influencias extranjeras en la Codificación penal española: contribución de la jurisprudencia en la evolución de la Parte Especial (1870-1995)” (PID2019-105871GB-I00) (2020-2024), funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science and Innovation.
- Member of the international research Project entitled “Social Governance through Legislation”, funded by the Norwegian government (2021-2022) (<https://cas.oslo.no/research-groups/social-governance-through-legislation-article4078-827.html>).
- Member of the Project “The Western Legal Traditions Casebook” and Co-editor of the future textbook (by Hart Publishing, Ius Commune Series) (<http://esclh.blogspot.com/p/western-legal-traditions-casebook.html>).
- I’m working on a project about ‘the secularization of criminal law in the Western legal tradition’, subject upon which I’ve given some papers and seminars in the USA and Europe over the last four years.

Past Research Projects

- Main researcher of the research project I+D (MINECO) entitled “Las influencias extranjeras en la tradición penal española: su concreto alcance en la Parte Especial de los Códigos decimonónicos” (DER2016-78388-P), 2016-2019.

- I coordinated (with Olivier Moreteau & Kjell Modéer) the book entitled Comparative Legal History (O. Moréteau, A. Masferrer and K.Å. Modéer, eds.), Edward Elgar Publishing ('Research Handbooks in Comparative Law' collection, 2019.
- Main researcher of the research project I+D (MINECO) entitled “La influencia de la Codificación francesa en la tradición penal española: su concreto alcance en la Parte general de los Códigos decimonónicos” (DER2012-38469) (2013-2016).
- “Legal reform in the Anglo-American legal tradition: the Codification movement in England, USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand”. This topic constitutes part of a wider research project which led me to work at the Universities of Cambridge (2005), Harvard (2006-2007) and Melbourne (2008), where I dealt with the Codification issue in the United Kingdom, the United States, Australia and New Zealand. At Harvard Law School I worked on the codification of American law; the first part of this research was published with the title: “The Passionate Discussion among Common Lawyers about postbellum American Codification: An approach to its Legal Argumentation,” 40 Arizona State Law Journal 173 (2008), pp. 173-256; the second part has already been published with the title: “Defense of the Common Law against postbellum American Codification: Reasonable and Fallacious Argumentation”, American Journal for Legal History 50.4 (2008-2010; published in 2010), pp. 355-430. I have also given several papers on this matter in Europe, USA, Australia and New Zealand.
- Member of the international research Project entitled ‘Books of Law: the Formation and Transmission of Western Legal Tradition’, sponsored by the French CNRS, led by Serge Dauchy (Lille, France), Heikki Pihlajämäki (Helsinki, Finland), Georges Martyn (Ghent, Belgium), and Anthony Musson (Exeter, UK), Alain Wijffels (Leiden University), 2012-2015.
- Member of the international research Project entitled 'How to do research in European Comparative Legal History: Texts, Contexts and Legal Institutions', led by Prof. Dr. Kjell Modéer and sponsored by the University of Lund (Sweden), 2013.

- Member of the international research Project entitled 'Jurisdictional Complexity in Western Legal History, C1600-1900', 2011-2013 (the book came out in 2015)
(<http://esclh.blogspot.com/2010/08/call-for-participants-western-legal.html>)
- Main researcher of the research project entitled “Democratic State's Response to Terrorism under the Rule of Law. A Historical and Comparative Approach to the protection of Human Rights and Civil liberties in the Fight against Terrorism”, sponsored by the Fundación Universitas (2010-2012).

In this regard, I delivered a paper in the 19. Kolloquium zur Polizeigeschichte, organized by the Center for Terrorism and Counterterrorism (University of Leiden) and Max-Planck-Institute für Europäische Rechtsgeschichte (Frankfurt am Main, 17th - 19th July 2008), with the title “An Approach to the Origins of the Terrorism in Spain (1868-1930). Civil and Liberties vs. Security?”.

<http://hsozkult.geschichte.hu-berlin.de/termine/id=9484>

On this matter I also gave a paper in the workshop Shooting to Kill, organized by The Australian National University (Onati, Spain, 18th - 19th June 2009), with the title: “A research Project on the State’s Response to Terrorism under the Rule of Law: a Historical and Comparative Approach. Security versus Liberty: The Challenge of Terrorism in Democratic States”.

I organised the international Conference “Democratic State's Response to Terrorism under the Rule of Law. A Historical and Comparative Approach to the protection of Human Rights and Civil liberties in the Fight against Terrorism”, at the International Institute for the Sociology of Law, Oñati, Spain, 14 - 15 July, 2011 (<http://www.iisj.net/iisj/de/calendario-workshops-2011.asp?cod=5651&nombre=5651&ppt=1>)

As a result of this research project, in addition to the conferences attended and papers presented, two books were published:

(for my specific contributions, see the list of my book chapters)

Aniceto Masferrer (ed.), Post 9/11 and the State of Permanent Legal Emergency: Security and Human Rights in Countering Terrorism. Dordrecht-Heidelberg-London-New York, Springer (Collection ‘Ius Gentium: Comparative Perspectives on Law and Justice’), 2012.

Aniceto Masferrer & Clive Walker (eds.), Counter-Terrorism, Human Rights and the Rule of Law: Crossing Legal Boundaries in Defence of the State, Edward Elgar Publishing, 2013.

- Participation in the research project entitled 'Wrongdoing in Spain, 1800-1936: Realities, Representations and Reactions' (<http://www.cam.ac.uk/research/news/read-all-about-it>), financed by the Arts and Humanities Research Council of United Kingdom (£600,725), and directed by Dr. Alison Sinclair, Professor of Modern Spanish Literature and Intellectual History' (<http://www.mml.cam.ac.uk/as49>) (Univ. Cambridge), 2011 - 2014.
- Main researcher of the research project entitled "Seguridad vs. Derechos fundamentales en la lucha contra el terrorismo en un Estado democrático y de Derecho: una aproximación histórica, jurídica y económica", supported by the University of Valencia (UV-AE-10-24010). In this context, I organized the International Workshop entitled "Estado de Derecho y Derechos fundamentales ante la lucha contra el terrorismo: Una aproximación histórica y jurídico-comparada" (which was held at the Faculty of Law, Univ. Valencia, 20-21 December 2010). As a result of this Project, a collective monograph was published:
Aniceto Masferrer (ed.), Estado de Derecho y derechos fundamentales en la lucha contra el terrorismo. Una aproximación multidisciplinar (histórica, jurídico-comparada, filosófica y económica). Cizur Menor (Navarra): Thomson Reuters Aranzadi, 2011.
- Participation in the international research Project entitled 'From Judges to the Legality Principle: Legislation as a Source of Law in Criminal Trials', 2009-2011.
- Participation in the international research project "European Legal Development: Liability for Wrongs in the European Legal Development (1850-2000)" (www.eld.law.cam.ac.uk), supported by the Arts and Humanities Research Council of United Kingdom (Grant: £250,000), and directed by Prof. Dr. John Bell and Prof. Dr. David Ibbetson, at the Comparative Law and Civil Law Departments, respectively (Universidad de Cambridge). Period of time: January 2005- March 2008.
- Participation in the research project "Los Decretos de Nueva Planta y la aplicación del Derecho en los Reinos de la Corona de Aragón", supported by the Aragón Justice and directed by Prof. Dr. José Antonio Escudero López, Department of Legal History and Institutions at the Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia (UNED), 2006-2007.
