

Rethinking Nordic Law – Nordic Court Procedure and Cooperation in the Age of Globalization

Tentative Programme – Örebro University

Monday 10 September 2018

12.30-13.30 Lunch – Fakultetsklubben on Campus

13.30-13.45 Welcome

13.45-15.15 The development of Nordic court procedure

- A sketch of the development of Nordic court procedure and court culture, and assessment of the level of “Nordic-ness” over time and reasons for variation – Pia Letto-Vanamo and Ditlev Tamm
- Sources of inspiration of Nordic procedural law – Maria Hjort
- Discussion

Coffee

15.30-17.30 Identifying and developing tools to identify Nordic elements in current Nordic legal systems.

- The legal cultural model as a tool for analysis and comparison – Jørn Øyrehagen Sunde
- Culture, society and mentality in Nordic courts – Laura Ervo
- Nordic courts in a European perspective. A comparative perspective on Nordic court procedure in an age of convergence, approximation and harmonization –Aleš Galič
- Discussion

19.30 Dinner – Restaurant Kitchenette, Ågatan 3.

Tuesday 11 September 2018

9.00-10.45 Global trends with a major impact on Nordic court procedure

- Globalization, privatization, diversification – a farewell to classic court procedure?–Stefaan Voet
- Courts, law, language and culture – Anne-Lise Kjær
- The narrowing space for national courts – fact or fiction? - Anna Nylund

- Not so national? – trends in criminal procedure – Jorun Rui
- Discussion

Coffee

11.00-12.00 Discussion and a preliminary combination of the three strands

12.00 Lunch, Fakultetsklubben on Campus