

Important information for incoming students of the degrees in Journalism and Audiovisual Communication:

During the 2020-21 academic year, the implementation of the new curriculum for these two degrees began. The new program will be introduced progressively, year after year, until the academic year 2023-24, when the process will be completed. Until then, the old curriculum and the new curriculum will partially coexist. This means that for the next academic year 2021-22:

If you do a mobility at the UV nominated for Journalism, you must select courses from:
