SUMMARY

This subject wants to contribute to the knowledge of food law and to the raise of the ethical awareness of professionals on their practice. Such ethical awareness is expressed in a socially responsible behavior in accordance with the moral and legal duties of the own profession. Especially, it helps to form nutritionists and food professionals in the frame of a comprehensive citizenship.

The main goal of this subject is to know both general aspects and specific issues of food law to reflect on the way how to build a more ethical society by means of the formation of citizens more aware of their civic tasks, and professionals more ethically engaged with the goals and values of their profession. And, from that standpoint, to analyze the concrete questions of food legislation and deontology.

The course will study ethical principles of the professions related with human nutrition, dietetics and science and technology of food and, considering concrete cases and situations, promote reflection on how to develop a correct and ethical professional practice.

EVALUATION

1. Theoretical part: realization of a written test to guarantee the knowledge and understanding of the theoretical contents established for the subject. This section will contribute to the final grade with a percentage of 70%.

2. Practical part: carrying out activities on various current topics related to nutrition. This section will contribute to the final grade with a percentage of 20%.

3. Coordinated seminar with a percentage of 10%. Written work, presentation, defense, and proposed activities will be taken into account for their assessment according to the guidelines on coordinated seminars available at the web page of the Degree. The level of understanding of the contents as well as the skills for its presentation and discussion will be assessed.

4. Attendance to practical classes, regulated tutorials and coordinated seminars is mandatory in the first registration. The repeaters (second registration) will not be required to attend, but they should talk with the teacher to determine the conservation of the previous notes in this section.

5. To be able to add the practical part it will be necessary to obtain a minimum of 3.5 (out of 7) in the written test.

6. For the second call the grades of the practical part are kept.

Alternatively, professors have the prerogative to opt for evaluating the learning of knowledge, skills and abilities in the form of continuous evaluation throughout the course. The professor will indicate the chosen form of evaluation (final or continuous) at the beginning of the course and it will be applied to the entire group. With the same percentages already stated, the continuous evaluation option will consider the following evaluable parameters:

- a) The completion of individual and/or collective reports related to the coursework and activities in the classroom. These will assess the acquisition of skills, knowledge of basic concepts and the capacity for ethical reasoning.
- b) A written test that will assess the degree of general knowledge of theoretical concepts and legal, deontological and ethical issues.
- c) The student's attitude of the will be assessed in individual and collective tutorials, practical classes, seminars and classroom debates.

Evidence of copying or plagiarism in any of the assessable tasks will result in failure to pass the subject and in appropriate disciplinary action being taken. Please note that, in accordance with article 13. d) of the Statute of the University Student (RD 1791/2010, of 30 December), it is the duty of students to refrain from using or participating in dishonest means in assessment tests, assignments or university official documents.

In the event of fraudulent practices, the "Action Protocol for fraudulent practices at the University of Valencia" will be applied (ACGUV 123/2020): <https://www.uv.es/sgeneral/Protocols/C83sp.pdf>

The activities of continuous assessment, which in this subject are practices, tutorials and seminars, are of MANDATORY ATTENDANCE and, therefore, NOT RECOVERABLE, in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.5 of the Regulation of Evaluation and Qualification of the UV for Bachelor and Master degrees. If it is not possible to attend any of these activities for justified reasons, it must be communicated in advance. In this way, the person in charge of the subject may assign the student a session in another group.
