TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The University tutor may monitor the internship through regular meetings, email, videoconferences, etc. Once the internship is completed, and within a maximum of 10 days, the student must submit the internship report to the academic tutor. A section will be available on the degree program website (<http://www.uv.es/dret/>) with additional information for preparing the internship report.

EVALUATIONDocumentation

Once the internship is completed, and within a maximum of 10 days, the student will submit a report of the activities completed to the academic tutor, following the tutor's instructions and those in the Student Guide for External Internships.

The tutor from the company or institution will receive the 'Final Evaluation Report' electronically at the end of the internship, which will be completed and sent electronically to the academic tutor.

Grading

To assess the internship competencies, the following criteria will be taken into account, weighted through continuous assessment by the academic tutor:

- 30% Report from the internship tutor from the company or institution.
- 10% Attendance at tutorials - presentation of periodic reports - and at job orientation courses and seminars - notably the Employment Forum and Professional Career Days of the Faculty.
- 60% Evaluation of the Final Internship Report, which must address the description of the sector of activity, the company/entity, the activities carried out, the applications of the knowledge derived from studies to the practice performed, the competencies and skills developed during the internship, personal assessment of the internship, and include bibliography.

Following these criteria, the academic tutor evaluates the student's internship and gives a grade on the corresponding transcript, as is done with the rest of the degree subjects.

However, if the tutor deems the internship worthy of a first-class honors, he or she will assign an outstanding grade and propose that the Internship Committee award it.
