SUMMARY

The course LEARNING INSTRUMENTS AND TECHNIQUES is aimed at facilitating the transition from student to the university environment, from a holistic approach that takes into account not only the competencies specifically on their degree, but also those related to the knowledge of the institution to which it belongs and its role in society.

Since this course is introductory, its objectives include that students think about the need to have ethical principles in their profession, as well as issues about the role of business and the social responsibility that businesses have on the society. Therefore, part of the resources for the development of the academic activities consider contents related with ethics and ethical values to be learnt, such as honesty, integrity, responsibility, respect, transparency, sustainability...

It is placed in the first year, first semester.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The methodologies used in the classroom will be different depending on the competences to which they are focused. There is a direct relationship between the methodology, the activity performed and the competences that are to gain students for each session. In general, we will work through lectures with participatory techniques, as well as with resolution of exercises, case studies, use of computer applications, conferences, visits, etc.

The teacher will provide students with materials through the Aula Virtual platform.

EVALUATION

1st Call:

- Individual mark 40%. Linked to the assistance to the sessions. Students will get it from exercises/case studies/reports/questionnaires, etc done and/or presented in class. Active participation in the sessions will be also considered.

- Team mark 30%. Resulting from one or several teamwork activities suggested by the teacher. The main teamwork will be related to the one to be presented at the course Fundamentals of Business Management.
- Exam mark 30%. It will be mandatory to obtain at least 4 points out of 10 in the exam to pass the subject.

2nd Call:

- Individual mark. Based on the results obtained in the first examination session, it will be possible to recover by submitting assignments or tasks related to those assessed during the course.
- Team mark. Not recoverable as they are related to group activities carried out during the lectures period. The student will keep the grade obtained in the 1st call.
- Exam mark. The student will have to take a new exam. All students who did not pass the course on the 1st call will have to sit for this 2nd call exam.

For both calls:

The final grade is obtained from the weighted average of the grades of each part of the assessment, as long as the student has passed the 2nd call exam; in case not, the final grade would be the weighted average with the maximum limit of 4.5 points.
