TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Theoretical classes, master class with direct participation of the students. Study and commentary on materials specific to the subject such as DO Regulations, examples with identifying labels, etc. Incorporation into the Virtual Classroom of teaching materials, legal texts, and notes for monitoring classes. Occasionally, students can be asked to prepare certain materials before class for their subsequent participatory and critical comment during the sessions or to prepare written comments / analyzes on the subject.

EVALUATION

Part corresponding to the Department of Commercial Law: Written test (exam) based on learning results (70%). Continuous evaluation of the student's work, including active attendance at sessions, participation, elaboration of comments or assumptions that may be formulated (30%). It is necessary to pass (5/10) the written test so that it can be measured with the continuous evaluation.
