SUMMARY

The Final Degree Project (TFG) will enable the student to obtain the the title of Graduate in Business Intelligence and Analytics (BIA). Through the TFG, the student will have to relate the knowledge and skills acquired throughout their studies to analyse the business reality and prepare diagnoses and, where appropriate, proposals on that same reality.

With the TFG, the student must demonstrate that he/she has acquired the necessary and sufficient skills and abilities to face the challenge of being an expert professional in the area of intelligence and analytics in the company. With the help of the TFG tutor, the student will have to develop his or her Final Degree Project in the chosen area of the company.
