EVALUATION

The general grading system will follow the regulations of the University of Valencia approved by the Governing Council on May 30, 2017. ACGUV 108/2017.

First call

The final grade will result from the sum of the following parts:

1. Theoretical exam at the end of the course (30%)
2. Development and presentation of a group project (20%)
3. Participation in class, seminars, and regular practical activities requested in class (20%)
4. Development and presentation of an individual project (30%)

To pass the course overall, it is necessary to achieve at least 50% of the total score and pass the final theoretical exam.

Second call

To pass the second examination session, it will be necessary to have submitted both the group and individual assignments. All components of the assessment, including mandatory practicals, may be retaken during the second session.

Academic honesty

Intellectual honesty is vital in academic communities and for the fair evaluation of students' work. All assignments submitted in this course must be the original work of the student. Works involving fraudulent collaboration or created with the assistance of artificial intelligence (ChatGPT or others) will not be accepted.

If plagiarism is detected in a student's evaluation work, it may be graded with a numerical zero and result in the suspension of the exam session, regardless of any disciplinary proceedings that may be initiated and, if applicable, the sanctions imposed in accordance with current legislation.

The following will also be considered serious offenses and may lead to immediate suspension of the exam session: copying or facilitating copying of assignments between degree students; irregular access to or premature appropriation of the content of a test or exam; facilitating or attempting the appropriation, alteration, or subsequent destruction of the content or results of an evaluable activity; and impersonation in exams.

When the serious offenses mentioned in this section are detected, the instructor must report them to the Degree coordination.

Both in the exam and in the practical exercises, correct spelling and grammar will be required. Each spelling, punctuation, or expression error will result in a reduction of the grade, which may lead to failing the assignment.
