TEACHING METHODOLOGY

MD2 - Individual study. The student is directed in learning-oriented activities, so that student activity focuses on research, location analysis, handling, processing and return of information. The preparation work for the study of the subject will focus on it.

MD3 - Tutoring. Both individually and in groups to solve problems and direct jobs. You can use the platform "Aula Virtual" of the University of Valencia to maintain contact with the teacher.

EVALUATION

In order to achieve a certain degree of homogeneity in the classification of work to master, set out below the indicative criteria approved by the Academic Coordination Committee (CCA), in accordance with established in the Regulatory Regulation of Master's Thesis in the University of Valencia approved by Agreement 199/2017, of 25 July 2017, the Consell de Govern of the University of Valencia (ACGUV 199/2017).

TFM assessment should refer to the acquisition of the tasks set out in the document verification official title of Master.

The student should proceed to the public defense work to master in front of the evaluators under the conditions established by CCA (art. 18.1 ACGUV 199/2017).

The tutor has to send the president of the evaluators, prior to the public defense of final master work, a report on it (art. 17.3 ACGUV 199/2017). At this point the CCA has provided a standard report to fill in which includes a proposal qualification. After the defense of the TFM, the evaluators will proceed to their qualification. The evaluators will consider the tutor's proposal qualification to make their decision. If there is no agreement between the evaluators and the rating given by the tutor, the final grade will be the average of the four individual scores. In this case each of the members of the court have to fill in issue a detailed report of its rating according to the form approved by the CCA which is available at the aula virtual both to students and professors in the GUIDE FOR EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF THE TFM.

The board members sign a record of the defense which contain the numerical grade and
