DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS

Content aspects:

With the master's thesis, the student will develop and apply the knowledge, skills, and competencies acquired during this degree. Regarding the content, it must be an original research work, appropriate to the student's area of specialization, and that allows the integration of theoretical knowledge and practical applications. This may involve applying current linguistic, literary, cultural, or communicative theories to a corpus selected for this purpose, within the field of English Studies.

Formal aspects:

The thesis will be presented in English and must follow these formal specifications:

- A4 format (except for those requiring a different format)
- Length between 15,000 and 20,000 words (60-80 pages)
- Times New Roman font, 12 pt size
- Double line spacing
- Margins of 2.5 cm

The thesis must avoid sexist language and instead use inclusive and egalitarian language that promotes equality between men and women.

The thesis will include, at minimum, the following sections:

- Cover page
- Table of contents
- Abstract
- Introduction
- Literature review / State of the art
- Methodology
- Analysis and discussion
- Conclusion
- Bibliography and sources used

- Appendices (if applicable)
