Resolution of March 13, 2019, made by the University of Valencia Rectorate and issuing a call for postdoctoral research fellowships within the Vice-Rectorate for Research's «Talent Attraction» subprogramme.

1. PREAMBLE

In order to promote quality research, adapt and improve resources allocated to research activity, and enhance knowledge transfer, the University of Valencia Rectorate announces a call for postdoctoral research fellowships

2. AGREEMENT

This Vice-Rectorate, in the exercise of the functions and competencies attributed to it under the Resolution of July, 5, 2018 (DOGV 09.07.2018), through which the vice-rector for research is delegated the competencies attributed to the rector to, among other measures, issue calls for awards for the purposes of research activities at the University of Valencia, resolves:

- 2.1. To approve the terms and regulations for the call for the award of postdoctoral research fellowships as part of the "Talent Attraction" subprogramme.
- 2.2. To open the period for the submission of applications.
- 2.3. That the funding of the awards to which this resolution pertains will, in accordance with budgetary resources and depending on the nature of the award, be drawn from the financial resources of Budget Program 5, "Promotion of Research and Technology," from which an allocation of €450,000 has been made to the University of Valencia Budget for 2019.

3. OBJECTIVE

The aim of this call is to award twelve postdoctoral research fellowships so that the fellows may supplement their training and strengthen their internationalization by completing a research project, in accordance with the following categories:

- 3.1. Category A: Awards for holders of doctorates who completed their predoctoral training at the University of Valencia via predoctoral research-training programmes, for the purposes of undertaking a research project at an internationally recognized university or research centre located outside of Spain, in collaboration with a research group from the University of Valencia. Five awards will be made within this category.
- 3.2. Category B: Awards for doctorate holders who have completed duly accredited international postdoctoral visits and/or fellowships of a minimum duration of twelve months, for the completion of a research project within a University of Valencia research group. This project could be conducted in collaboration with research groups affiliated with internationally recognized universities or research centres located outside of Spain. Seven awards will be made within this category.

4. AWARD RECIPIENTS

Receipt of these awards is open to individuals who hold doctorates and who received an award for predoctoral training at the University of Valencia or who have been affiliated with it via employment in a research position there.

5. APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS

5.1. Requirements for individuals applying under category A:

Applicants must provide proof that they hold a doctorate. Alternatively, applicants who have not yet completed their doctorate may submit an application under this call by providing proof of their registration on a doctoral program at the University of Valencia. In either case, proof of the applicant's holding of a doctorate must be provided at the latest in the correction period corresponding to the publication of the provisional list of applications accepted for consideration, applicants whose applications require corrections and rejected applicants (point 10.1 of the call). The date on which the doctorate was completed must be later than December 31, 2017. The completion date is to be understood as the date of the thesis defence and approval of the doctoral thesis.

Periods of maternity or paternity leave taken in accordance with the protected situations set out in the General Regime for Social Security will extend the cut-off date contained in the previous point, provided that the periods of interruption arising from such situations occurred between the date specified in the previous paragraph and the closing date for the submission of applications. An extension of one year per child will be granted. These periods are to be indicated and proof duly provided when the application is submitted.

5.1.1. Applicants must have been recipients of awards for predoctoral training at the University of Valencia and have undertaken that training for a minimum of 36 months.

5.2. Requirements for individuals applying under category B:

5.2.1. Applicants must provide proof that they hold a doctorate.

5.2.2. The date on which the doctorate was completed must be later than December 31, 2012. The completion date is to be understood as the date of the thesis defence and approval of the doctoral thesis.

Periods of maternity or paternity leave taken in accordance with the protected situations set out in the General Regime for Social Security will extend the cut-off date contained in the previous point, provided that the periods of interruption arising from such situations occurred between the date specified in the previous paragraph and the closing date for the submission of applications. An extension of one year per child will be granted. These periods are to be indicated and proof duly provided when the application is submitted.

5.2.3. Applicants must have been affiliated with the University of Valencia through employment in a research position for a minimum period of two years.

5.2.4. Applicants must have completed duly accredited research visits and/or fellowships, with a minimum duration of one year and during the past five years, at universities or research centres located outside of Spain

6. REQUIREMENTS FOR SUPERVISORS ENDORSING APPLICANTS

6.1. Applications must be endorsed by a «research supervisor» who must be a researcher who holds a doctorate and is employed on a full-time basis by the University of Valencia or a researcher hired as part of the University of Valencia Special Stabilization Programme for Reinstatement of Researchers or of the University of Valencia Framework Programme for the Hiring of Doctoral Research Staff.

6.2. The supervisor must hold the position of head of a research group that is included in the University of Valencia Structures Register or has applied for inclusion.

- 6.3. The receiving group in the University of Valencia must show evidence that it has completed competitive research projects on an uninterrupted basis over the past nine years. At least one of the projects must be affiliated with the University of Valencia and be in course at the time when the application is submitted.
- 6.4. Applications made under Category A must also include the endorsement or acceptance of the head of the group, unit or research centre affiliated with an internationally recognized university or research centre located outside of Spain
- 6.5. No researcher from UV may endorse or be the supervisor for more than one application within this call.

7. CONDITIONS FOR THE AWARD

- 7.1. Formalities and allocation. Under either Category, the award will be allocated to finance a full-time employment contract with a total remuneration of € 37,146 per year.
- 7.2. Additionally, in the case of Category A, the award will include:
 - 7.2.1. Travel expenses arising from a return trip via public transport, at economy fare or equivalent. Travel expenses will be paid following presentation of a photocopy of the travel ticket and the original version of the corresponding invoice. The researcher's use of his or her own vehicle must first be authorized by the Vice-Rectorate for Research. In such a case, travel expenses will be calculated according to the €/km formula in effect, up to the set limit. To this end, a journey report must be presented, and this must include the make, model and registration number of the vehicle and the number of kilometres travelled. A copy of the vehicle documents and the researcher's driving license must also be provided.
 - 7.2.2. The costs of an insurance and civil liability policy. In addition, when the destination country does not have a social-security agreement with Spain, healthcare insurance that will cover the award recipient's spouse and children.
- 7.3. Duration. Under either Category, the employment contract will have a duration of one year.
- 7.4. Commencement of duties. The hired researcher must join his or her workplace on the first day of the month following the publication of the definitive resolution on awards. The Vice-Rectorate for Research may authorize a postponement to the commencement for a maximum period of three months from the publication date for the awards, following a request and an accompanying explanation made by the award recipient, which must have been approved by the supervisor(s) who approved the recipient's request. If the researcher does not begin his or her duties by the authorized deadline, he or she will have been deemed to have relinquished the award.
- 7.5. Affiliation. Within the University of Valencia, the hired researcher will be affiliated with the department, institute or interdisciplinary research structure with which the leader of the group that endorsed the researcher's application has a research affiliation.
- 7.6. Conflicts. Receipt of this award cannot be combined with any scholarship or award drawn from public or private funds, or with salaries or wages that involve a contract-based or permanent staff relationship on the applicant's part, except for the receipt of specific supplements derived from participation in projects and contracts arising from the application of article 83 of Organic Law 6/2001, of December 21 on Universities, and for assistance for short stays that may be granted within the framework of this subprogramme.
If such a conflict does apply to a recipient and he or she does not provide notification of it, the Vice-Rectorate for Research may proceed with revocation of the award and recovery of sums erroneously paid.
- 7.7. Suspension of award. In situations of temporary incapacity (illness or accident); paternity, maternity or adoption leave; or fostering of children under the age of six years, recipients are entitled to undertake a temporary suspension of their award. During the period of suspension for these situations, the University of Valencia will make supplemental economic contributions to Social Security to a maximum of 100% of the monthly award amount. In such a case and depending on budgetary resources, the period of the suspension can be recovered, provided that this is done over periods of at least 30 days.

Appropriate evidence of the aforementioned situations must be provided in due time and form by award recipients to the Social Security Section of the University of Valencia, and the situation must comply with Social Security regulations. This is an essential requirement for the purposes of submitting a request for a suspension and, subsequently, a request to recover the suspension period.

Once the situation has been corroborated, the award recipient may request the temporary suspension of the employment contract before the Vice-Rectorate for Research, by means of a letter that sets out and explains the reason for the suspension and its expected duration and is accompanied by a signed proforma agreement from one of his or her supervisors, which is available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page.

Once the situation that gave rise to the suspension has come to an end, the award recipient must notify the Vice-Rectorate for Research of his or her effective return to his or her department, institute or interdisciplinary research structure through recorded-delivery mail sent by his or her supervisors as well as through the corresponding request to recover the period of the suspension.

- 7.8. Relinquishments, withdrawals and end of award. The award will be deemed to have been relinquished if the recipient does not begin his or her duties within the commencement period, or if he or she does not complete the formalities for the award during the aforementioned term. An award recipient will be deemed to have withdrawn if he or she does not perform his or her duties at the affiliated centre after a delay to commencement had been authorized, or if the recipient makes a request to withdraw. Notifications of withdrawals must be given within a maximum period of five days from the moment of effective withdrawal, via the proforma available on the Research and Innovation Service's webpage.

7.9. Reservation of research results:

- 7.9.1. Intellectual property derived from the results of research projects, contracts and agreements involving recipients under this subprogramme belongs to the University of Valencia, without prejudice to the recipients' moral rights or to a share in the resultant revenue according to current legislation. The University of Valencia must immediately be notified of any invention.
- 7.9.2. Recipients under this subprogramme must maintain proper confidentiality in relation to data or confidential information of a scientific, technical or commercial nature to which they have access over the course of their research project.
- 7.9.3. Any breach of this obligation by the recipient, or the improper use of information, will expose him or her to liability of any applicable type, and he or she will be held directly liable for indemnification arising from damages incurred.

7.10. Permissions:

- 7.10.1. Permission must be approved, in writing by the supervisor(s), for visits for periods of 30 days or fewer. The destination, aim and duration of the visit must be stated. Recipients must notify the Vice-Rectorate for Research of this approval via a copy of it.
- 7.10.2. Visits of more than 30 days require advance authorization from the Vice-Rectorate for Research. To that end, the applicant must submit to the aforementioned Vice-Rectorate a request in writing, specifying the destination, objective and start and end dates of the visit along with written approval from his or her supervisor(s). Once the request has been considered, the Vice-Rectorate for Research will, where appropriate, approve the visit in writing.

- 7.11. Other circumstances. Any other circumstances related to the award will require the corresponding authorization of the Vice-Rectorate for Research upon prior written request from the applicant and the approval of his or her supervisor(s).

8. FORMALITIES AND PERIOD FOR SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

- 8.1. Applications, which are to be addressed to the Vice-Rectorate for Research, must be submitted online via the University of Valencia's Virtual Office, where the form can be accessed.
- 8.2. Submissions of applications will be accepted from the day after the publication of this resolution on the University of Valencia Official Bulletin Board until April 15, 2019, at 14:00.
- 8.3. Applicants must use the established electronic means for submission of applications and documents and for communication purposes.
- 8.4. Only one application for this call per person will be accepted. Failure to comply with this requirement will disqualify all applications submitted by the applicant concerned.
- 8.5. Applicants must attach the following documents to their online application:
 - 8.5.1. Copy of the applicant's national identity document or equivalent identity document in the case of citizens from the European Union. Copy of the applicant's passport in the case of citizens of non-European Union countries.
 - 8.5.2. Copy of the applicant's doctorate certificate or accreditation of registration on a University of Valencia doctoral program.
 - 8.5.3. In the case of applicants who have not yet completed their doctorate, proof of registration on a University of Valencia doctoral programme must be provided; in all cases, proof of the applicant's holding of a doctorate must be provided at the latest in the correction period corresponding to the publication of the provisional list of applications accepted for consideration, applicants whose applications require corrections and rejected applicants (point 10.1 of the call).
 - 8.5.4. A copy of the applicant's curriculum vitae.
 - 8.5.5. The applicant's curriculum vitae summary, prepared using the proforma available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page.
 - 8.5.6. A statement on the research project to be undertaken, prepared using the proforma available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page.
 - 8.5.7. A report signed by each of the supervisors endorsing the application, prepared using the proforma available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page.
 - 8.5.8. The curriculum vitae of the supervisor affiliated with the University of Valencia and that of the supervisor for the research to be undertaken at the university located outside of Spain, if applicable; these curriculum vitae must include the following sections:
 - 8.5.8.1. General indicators of quality of research output. Information on the number of six-year research terms and the date of the last term granted; number of doctoral theses supervised in the past ten years; total citations; average citations per year over the past five years, not including the current year; indication of total publications indexed in Q1 of SCI, SCOPUS or INRECs in the past five years; indication of total publications in the researcher's area in the last five years; h-index. The researcher may additionally include other indicators that he or she considers relevant.
To calculate these values, the data available on Thomson Reuters' Web of Science are to be used where possible. If the data from Web of Science cannot be used, other indicators may be used; in such cases, the database consulted (which preferably should be Scopus or Google Academic) should be specified.
 - 8.5.8.2. Curriculum Vitae free summary. A brief description of the researcher's research career and his or her main research achievements, as well as his or her research interests and objectives within his or her line of research in the middle and long terms (statement limit of 3,500 characters).

- 8.5.9. If the application falls under Category A, a document of acceptance signed by the supervisor of the receiving research group or centre of the institution located outside of Spain, prepared according to the proforma available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page.
- 8.6. Submission of applications requires any of the following forms of identity and authentication:
- 8.6.1. Electronic national identity document or any other electronic certificate compatible with the University of Valencia's Virtual Office.
 - 8.6.2. Identification with username and password used for a University of Valencia email account.
 - 8.6.3. User account on the University of Valencia's Virtual Office, which is required if the applicant cannot gain access through any of the other methods.
- 8.7. If the applicant is visiting the University of Valencia's Virtual Office for the first time, he or she will have to accept the general conditions of use and the data-protection policy.
- 8.8. Once the online application form has been completed, it must be sent using the "Send" button under the "Finish" tab. Once the application has been sent, the following information will appear:
- 8.8.1. Application file number
 - 8.8.2. Date and time of submission
 - 8.8.3. Receipt record number
 - 8.8.4. Document digital signature
 - 8.8.5. "Get document" button, through which a PDF copy of the submitted application can be downloaded.
- 8.9. In accordance with the provisions of article 9 of the University of Valencia Regulation on Electronic Records and current legislation, applications submitted through this process will be legally valid and so will not need to be submitted in person.
- 8.10. In the "My personal area" section of the University of Valencia's Virtual Office, applicants can:
- 8.10.1. Access their applications and processes in progress
 - 8.10.2. Consult the status of their administrative record
 - 8.10.3. Add supplementary documents during the submission period or to make corrections established under current legislation.
 - 8.10.4. Access and consult communications and notifications issued by the University of Valencia in relation to the applicant's record

9. BODY RESPONSIBLE FOR PROCESSING APPLICATIONS

- 9.1. Applications will be processed by the Research and Innovation Service, which will perform the actions required for the purposes of ascertaining, analysing and validating information that will be used as the basis for decisions.
- 9.2. Communication of all activities will be sent, as far as is technically possible, through the electronic means established in this resolution, except in the case of activities for which a different means is specifically provided in this resolution or in certain circumstances deemed to be appropriate and justified.
- 9.3. Individuals who have any comments or queries for the personnel responsible for administration of this call in relation to the call itself or to the administrative procedures should send an email to epif@uv.es.
- 9.4. To help us to improve, we would be grateful to be informed, via an email sent to entreu@uv.es, of any technical problems encountered during completion of the form or use of the University of Valencia's Virtual Office.

10. AWARD PROCEDURE

- 10.1. Once the deadline for submission of applications has passed and applications have been reviewed, a resolution from the Vice-Rectorate for Research will be published on the University of Valencia Official Bulletin Board and on the Research and Innovation Service's webpage. This resolution will list all applications deemed incomplete or those rejected owing to a failure to meet the criteria so that, within a period of ten days, applicants may correct errors, provide all the mandatory documentation or make any submissions that the applicant considers appropriate. If an applicant who is listed in the resolution as not having submitted a valid application does not take one of these courses of action, he or she will be deemed to have discontinued his or her application.
- 10.2. Once the aforementioned period has passed, a resolution from the Vice-Rectorate for Research definitively listing applications accepted for evaluation and rejected or discontinued ones will be published in the places specified in point 10.1.
- 10.3. Evaluation of applications. Applications will be assessed according to a 100-point scoring system. This assessment will consider applicants' academic and professional records, the importance and suitability of the group within which the proposed research project will be undertaken and the research project's potential impact, in accordance with the following scale:
- 10.3.1. The applicant's curriculum vitae will be evaluated in accordance with the Scale for the hiring of research personnel with doctorates established in Annex 2 of the University of Valencia Regulations on Research Personnel, agreed by the Governing Council on November 27, 2012. This evaluation will count toward up to 60% of the total score.
- 10.3.2. Assessment of curriculum vitae of the supervisors of the research at the University of Valencia and at the centre outside of Spain (in the case of applications submitted under Category A). This evaluation will count toward up to 30% of the total score. Publications will be assessed in accordance with the Annual Research Report Assessment Scale in effect at the time of the publication of the call.
- 10.3.3. The potential impact of the research project and mobility plan, which will count for up to 10 % of the total score.
To be eligible for an award, applicants must obtain at least 50% of the maximum score for each of these three categories.
- 10.4. Once the evaluation process has concluded, the provisional list of the assessed applications will be published in the places indicated in point 10.1. The provisional list will indicate the scores obtained in each of the sections of the Scale so that, within ten days, submissions that applicants deem appropriate may be made; consideration will not be given to any points in the applicant's favour that were not validated during the application or correction periods.
- 10.5. Where two or more candidates obtained the same score, decisions will be made according to the UV Research Committee's judgement of which candidate has the best research record.

11. RESOLUTION AND NOTIFICATION

- 11.1. Once the period for receipt of submissions specified in point 10.4 has ended and those submissions have been reviewed, upon the proposal of the Research Committee, a resolution from the Vice-Rectorate for Research containing the final list of assessed applications will be published in the places indicated in point 11.2. This list will indicate the scores obtained in each one of the sections of the Scale, and awards will be made to applicants under each category according to the highest scores obtained. Applicants who have been placed in the reserve pool will also be listed.

- 11.2. The aforementioned resolution will be published on the University of Valencia Official Bulletin Board and on the Research and Innovation Service's website. This act stands in stead of notification and has the same effects, in accordance with current legislation and the University of Valencia's own regulations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, communications may be sent via email to applicants regarding whether or not their application has been successful and, where applicable, the conditions for the award.
- 11.3. The deadline for the resolution on this call is six months from the day after the publication of this resolution. If this deadline passes and no resolution has been issued, all applications will be deemed to have been rejected.
- 11.4. Awards are conditional on the availability of sufficient resources within the annual budget corresponding to the year in which the awards will be made.
- 11.5. Relinquishments and rejections that may occur within a period of three months from the publication of the resolution granting the awards may lead to the granting of new awards to applicants who were placed in the reserve pool, strictly in order of the highest scores awarded to applications made under each category.

12. OBLIGATIONS, MONITORING AND REVIEW

- 12.1. Commencement of duties and use made of award. Award recipients must begin duties in the department, institute or research centre with which they are affiliated in accordance with point 7.4. of this call, conduct their research work on a full-time basis, effectively focus on the proposed research project and fruitfully complete the stages of their research project, complying with the rules of the university or research centre outside of Spain as well as the legal regulations applicable to the University of Valencia.
- To this end, in the case of awards made under Category A, within a period of seven days after they begin their duties, award recipients must submit a certificate of commencement, the proforma for which is available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page. The certificate must be sent by an email with the subject "Incorporació Postdoc AT" to epif@uv.es.
- 12.2. Reports and monitoring:
- 12.2.1. No later than one month after the end date of their contract, award recipients must submit to the Vice-Rectorate for Research an explanatory report on their work, their publications and their objectives achieved. The report must include approval from the supervisor(s) and be based on the proforma available on the Research and Innovation Service's web page.
- 12.2.2. Forms and other documents that are sent by the Vice-Rectorate for Research for the purposes of monitoring the award must be completed.
- 12.2.3. Where appropriate, the Vice-Rectorate for Research must be contacted to make any requests for or notifications of any change or incident relating to the to completion of the award.
- 12.2.4. The award holder's affiliation with the University of Valencia and his or her receipt of the award under the "University of Valencia Postdoctoral Contracts, Talent Attraction Subprogramme" is to be indicated in any research published by the award holder.
- 12.2.5. Any failure to fulfil any of these obligations without explanation may lead to revocation of the award by the Vice-Rectorate for Research.
- 12.3. Participation in external calls for postdoctoral research personnel. Award recipients must participate in calls for postdoctoral training and funding that are made by the State Research Agency (Juan de la Cierva and Ramón y Cajal programmes) and for which they are eligible.

13. OTHER GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 13.1. The grant and holding of these awards do not imply any commitment as to the award holder's subsequent hiring as a University of Valencia faculty or staff member.

13.2. Participation in this subprogramme implies total acceptance of these terms. Any queries or uncertainties regarding interpretation of the terms will be resolved by the Vice-Rectorate for Research.

14. DATA PROTECTION

14.1. Processed personal data will be incorporated into the automated file for research management created by the University of Valencia Rectorate Resolution of November 2002 in accordance with Organic Law 15/1999, of September 13, on the Protection of Personal Data, as well as with Real Decree 1720/2007, of December 21, approving the regulations on implementation of said law.

14.2. Personal data will be processed using the same level of protection as that established in Royal Decree 1720/2007, and the security measures required to ensure the confidentiality and integrity of information have been adopted.

14.3. Data obtained will be processed for the purposes of managing the applications submitted.

14.4. Interested parties may exercise their rights of data access, rectification, cancellation and opposition to processing under the terms that can be consulted on the University of Valencia website (Inici > Política de privacitat > Drets dels usuaris) or here.

15. APPEALS

This resolution and those ending the call referred to in point 11 are subject to the exhaustion of administrative remedies, and appeals for reversal of them may be made to the same body that issued them, within a period of one month from the day after the notification date of the resolution. It is also possible to lodge an administrative appeal before the appropriate courts, within a period of two months from the day after the notification date of the resolution. However, without prejudice to the aforementioned appeals, any other appeals deemed appropriate may be made.
