ACCOMODATION AND PRACTICAL INFORMATION

o HOW TO GET TO/FROM THE AIRPORT

By metro: Line 3 (red) and Line 5 (green). The station is situated on the ground floor -arrivals hall in the Regional Terminal. To the city centre it takes approximately 25 minutes.

By bus: via metropolitan bus, line 150, also known as the Airport Metrobus. The bus stop is outside the T1 arrivals hall.

By taxi; There are two taxi stands, one in T1 Departures (first floor) and the other in T1 Arrivals (ground floor). València's taxis are white and managed by local companies. They all charge the same rates and are available 24 hours a day. The cost to the city centre will be around 20 to 25 €. All of them already have a dataphone to pay by card.

● Bicycle around the city

València is a bike-friendly city perfect to take a pleasant ride. The city, which belongs to the Network of Cycling Cities, has over 156 kilometres of cycle paths and is home to the old riverbed of the Turia River, a garden that cuts through the urban heart of the city that you can visit by bike without any rush, whilst enjoying a year-round pleasant climate. The flatness of the ground and the conditions of the historical centre, where vehicles traffic is restricted, are some other reasons for enjoying a bike ride in Valencia.

● Tourist info points

The offices of the Red Tourist Info are the best support for visitors of València. There are seven centers spread over key points of the city, where you will be accurately informed information on events and routes, obtain tourist maps and transport tickets, as well as the exclusive discounts of the Valencia Tourist Card. They are open from Monday to Sunday.

- Nightlife

València's nightlife offering is very diverse and lasts all year thanks to the good climate. At the weekend, which is when there is more atmosphere, the bustle starts after dinner and can go on until the early hours of the morning because, although pubs close at 3.30am, clubs are open until 7.30am. So, if you are looking to party, this is your city (but don't get too carried away, please).

- Events taking place these days

At the dawn of June 24-the beaches of the Valencian Community are filled with bonfires to celebrate San Juan (St. John). The party will continue until the early hours of the morning, after jumping the waves in one of the most magical, fun and moving moments of this traditional celebration.

See you soon in València and...
