The screenshot shows the official website of the University of Valencia. At the top, there is a dark blue header with the university's logo and name on the left, and navigation links for 'Valencià', 'Castellano', and 'Directory' (which is circled) on the right. Below the header is a horizontal menu with categories: 'The University', 'Undergraduate Studies', 'Postgraduate Courses', 'Research and Tech Transfer', and 'International Relations'. The main content area features a large banner image of a scientist in a lab coat using a pipette, with the text 'Ajudes a la investigació VNIVERSITAT ID VALÈNCIA' and a '+ info' button. To the right of the banner is a vertical list of links: 'Studying at the University', 'Current Students', 'International Students', 'Teaching and research staff', 'Staff and Faculties Administration', and 'Business'. Below the banner, there is a section for 'NEWS | TV | PRESS | INFOUNIVERSITAT | RADIO | RSS'. The first news item is titled 'The University of Valencia studies the wetlands to assess their potential as carbon sinks to mitigate climate change' and includes a small image of a wetland. The second news item is titled 'Performance, renaissance and baroque chant and orchestra conducting are included in the new educational offer of the Trust' and includes a small image of a musical ensemble. To the right of the news items, there are three promotional boxes: 'VLC/CAMPUS' (Valencia, International Campus of Excellence), 'CAMPUSHABITAT5U' (Campus de Excel·lència Internacional), and 'La Universitat UNIVERSITAT PÚBLICA' (per una ràdio i televisió públiques).

- Most courses at the University of Valencia (UV) are assigned an ECTS value of 6 credits. In principle, students need to take up to 30 credits per semester.
- We strongly advise exchange students to sign up for a minimum of 18 credits per semester when formulating their study programme at the UV.
- Please note that Erasmus students have to select 50% of courses in the field of study that they have been nominated for.
- In case they would also like to attend courses outside their nominated field of study, that are offered in other degrees or faculties, they have to check their availability, because :
 - it will depend on the faculty regulations and the course demand.
 - the “Secretaría” of your faculty will apply for them and inform you.

Look up your subjects at: <http://links.uv.es/incoming/degrees>

The University of Valencia website header includes the university logo, name, and navigation links: Valencià, Castellano, Directory, and Login. A search bar is also present.

The main navigation menu includes: The University, Undergraduate Studies (highlighted with a red circle), Postgraduate Courses, Research and Tech Transfer, and International Relations.

Below the navigation menu, the "Undergraduate Studies" section features a banner image of two students looking at a tablet, with the text "VNIVERSITAT ID VALÈNCIA OFFERED DEGREES 2016".

To the right of the banner is a list of links: Studying at the University, Current Students, International Students, Teaching and research staff, Staff and Faculties Administration, and Business.

The breadcrumb trail reads: Home > Undergraduate Studies > Undergraduate Studies > Degree Programmes Offered.

The "Degree Programmes Offered" section includes a sidebar with links: Pre-enrol, Access guide to the UV, UV Degree Guide, and Contact and Information.

The main content area is titled "Degrees" and is divided into two columns:

- Arts and Humanities Branch
 - » Degree in Catalan Studies
 - » Degree in Classical Philology
 - » Degree in English Studies
 - » Degree in Hispanic Studies
 - » Degree in History
 - » Degree in History of Art
 - » Degree in Modern Languages and Literatures
 - » Degree in Philosophy
